Basic Statistics Patricia B. Elmore, Paula L. Woehlke, 1997 Written specifically for educators with a limited background in mathematics Basic Statistics offers a nontechnical introduction to statistical concepts and techniques The authors emphasize the practical application of statistics in educational research into a variety of settings including only those topics of specific relevance to teachers administrators and other educators      Basic Statistics for Social Research Robert A. Hanneman, Augustine J. Kposowa, Mark D. Riddle, 2012-11-15 A core statistics text that emphasizes logical inquiry not math Basic Statistics for Social Research teaches core general statistical concepts and methods that all social science majors must master to understand and do social research Its use of mathematics and theory are deliberately limited as the authors focus on the use of concepts and tools of statistics in the analysis of social science data rather than on the mathematical and computational aspects Research questions and applications are taken from a wide variety of subfields in sociology and each chapter is organized around one or more general ideas that are explained at its beginning and then applied in increasing detail in the body of the text Each chapter contains instructive features to aid students in understanding and mastering the various statistical approaches presented in the book including Learning objectives Check quizzes after many sections and an answer key at the end of the chapter Summary Key terms End of chapter exercises SPSS exercises in select chapters Ancillary materials for both the student and the instructor are available and include a test bank for instructors and downloadable video tutorials for students      Introduction to Educational Research W. Newton Suter, 2012 W Newton Suter argues that what is important in a changing education landscape is the ability to think clearly about research methods reason through complex problems and evaluate published research He explains how to evaluate data and establish its relevance      Resources in Education , 2001-04      Educational Research Carter Alexander, George Drayton Strayer, Nickolaus Louis Engelhardt, Paul R. Mort, 1927
