The Basis of Religion Alfred Williams Momerie, 1883 The Basis of Religion A. W. Momerie, 2016-06-27 Excerpt from The Basis of Religion Being an Examination of Natural Religion If it distresses any one to think that I personally abandon all that the extreme school call in question certainly he may console himself In general the negative view is regarded in this book no otherwise than as I find it to be regarded by most of those to whom the book is principally addressed viz as a fashionable view difficult for the moment to resist because it seems favoured by great authorities a view therefore concerning which how ever unwillingly we cannot help asking ourselves the question What if it should turn out to be true But if I were asked what I myself think Of it I should remark that it is not the greatest scientific authorities who are so confident in negation but rather the inferior men who echo their opinions but who live themselves in the atmosphere not of science but of party controversy About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The English Catalogue of Books, 1887 The Five "Confucian" Classics Michael Nylan, 2008-10-01 The Five Classics associated with Confucius formed the core curriculum in the education of Chinese literati throughout most of the imperial period In this book Michael Nylan offers a sweeping assessment of these ancient texts and shows how their influence spread across East Asia Nylan begins by tracing the formation of the Five Classics canon in the pre Han and Han periods 206 B C A D 220 revising standard views on the topic She assesses the impact on this canon of the invention of a rival corpus the Four Books in the twelfth century She then analyzes each of the Five Classics discussing when they were written how they were transmitted and edited in later periods and what political historical and ethical themes were associated with them through the ages Finally she deliberates on the intertwined fates of Confucius and the Five Classics over the course of the twentieth century and shows how the contents of the Five Classics are relevant to much newer concerns Philosophy Made Simple A. Stroll, R H Popkin, 2012-09-10 Philosophy Made Simple will be of particular interest to students beginning degree courses in philosophy and to those who are studying it as an ancillary subject within courses such as sociology education linguistics theology and psychology It will in addition be useful for a variety of liberal arts courses in adult education The book also provides a valuable basis for an introductory self study course Avrum Stroll is Professor of Philosophy at the University of California San Diego USA Richard H Popkin is presently Professor Emeritus Washington University St Louis and Adjunct Professor History and Philosophy at UCLA USA Test of Faith, Study Guide Ruth Bancewicz, 2010-09 Test of Faith is an innovative new resource to help small groups explore the issues
