Alcohol Addiction And Christian Ethics Alcohol Addiction And Christian Ethics:

Alcohol, Addiction and Christian Ethics Christopher C. H. Cook, 2006-05-04 Addictive disorders are characterised by a division of the will in which the addict is attracted both by a desire to continue the addictive behaviour and also by a desire to stop it Academic perspectives on this predicament usually come from clinical and scientific standpoints with the moral model rejected as outmoded But Christian theology has a long history of thinking and writing on such problems and offers insights which are helpful to scientific and ethical reflection upon the nature of addiction Chris Cook reviews Christian theological and ethical reflection upon the problems of alcohol use and misuse from biblical times until the present day Drawing particularly upon the writings of St Paul the Apostle and Augustine of Hippo a critical theological model of addiction is developed Alcohol dependence is also viewed in the broader ethical perspective of the use and misuse of alcohol within communities

African Christian Ethics Samuel Waje Kunhiyop, 2019-04-09 An introduction to African Christian ethics for Christian colleges and Bible schools African Christian Ethics is divided into two main parts The first deals with the theory of ethics while the second discusses practical issues The issues are grouped into the following six sections Socio Political Issues Financial Issues Marriage Issues Sexual Issues Medical Issues Religious Issues Each of these six section begins with a brief general introduction followed by the chapters dealing with specific issues in that area Each chapter begins with an introduction discusses traditional African thinking on the issue presents an analysis of relevant biblical material and concludes with some recommendations There are questions at the end of each chapter for discussion or personal reflection often asking students to reflect on how the discussion in the chapter applies to their ministry situation

Addiction and the Captive Will Cynthia Geppert, 2024-05-30 Twenty first century neuroscience has discovered that in some severe cases addiction may so constrain human freedom that the will is only able to choose to use substances of abuse At this advanced stage substance use has become the primary driver of salience co-opting and subsuming other moral priorities and human rewards Scholars have investigated Aristotle's concept of akrasia as an ancient mirror of this understanding and there have been some preliminary discussions of Augustine's concept of the divided will as it bears on addiction No detailed and comprehensive exploration of the work of Augustine has yet been undertaken as it relates to three contemporary models of addiction the choice learning and brain disease models Augustine's psychological awareness his mastery of ancient theological and philosophical thinking and his enormous and enduring influence on both Catholic and Protestant theology make him an ideal subject for such research This incisive book argues that Augustine's doctrine of the captive will offers a theological parallel of each of these contemporary models of addiction

Outline of Christian Ethics Kwing Hung, 2014-10-14 Outline of Christian Ethics is a Q yet the extent of the book is broad and deep Dr Hung does not use purely rational and argumentative methods he employs the method of lighthearted conversation with the reader Every chapter is introduced with some stories to stir up the interest of the reader Furthermore statistical facts are added to strengthen the persuasive power of the points made The wealth of information contained in this book will help busy pastors and Christians find the necessary information quickly Rev Dr Peter Au principal Canadian Chinese School of Theology at Tyndale Seminary Toronto

Addiction Nation Timothy McMahan King, 2019-06-11 Opioids claim the lives of 115 people per day One of them could have been me When a near fatal illness led his doctors to prescribe narcotics media consultant Timothy McMahan King ended up where millions of others have addicted Eventually King learned to manage pain without opioids but not before he began asking profound questions about the spiritual and moral nature of addiction the companies complicit in creating the opioid epidemic and the paths toward healing and recovery We have become a society not only damaged by addiction but fueled by it In Addiction Nation King investigates the ways that addiction robs us of freedom and holds us back from being fully human Through stories theology philosophy and cultural analysis King examines today's most common addictions and their destructive consequences In stark yet intimate prose he looks not only at the rise of opioid abuse but at policy pain virtue and habit He also unpacks research showing patterns of addiction to technology stress and even political partisanship Addiction of any kind dims the image of God and corrupts who we were created to be Addiction Nation nudges us toward healing from the ravages of addiction and draws us toward a spirituality sturdy enough to sate our deepest longings

Addiction and Pastoral Care Nicolas Roberts, 2018 Addiction can take many forms and there can hardly be a minister or a prison college or schools chaplain who will not have encountered its damaging effects on individuals their families and local communities In the UK in 2014 there were 3 300 drug related deaths and almost 9 000 alcohol related deaths 70% of offenders admit to a drug problem before prison and drug use is a major problem throughout the prison system Besides these compulsive behaviours of all kinds damage personal and communal wellbeing Clergy and pastoral workers are often in the front line caring for addicts and their families usually without any professional training This handbook from an experienced pastoral practitioner offers An exploration of the psychology of addiction A theological perspective on desire The nature of pastoral care with addicts Practical models of pastoral care Resources for professional care Pharmacology and Treatment of Substance Abuse Lee M. Cohen, Frank L. Collins, Jr., Alice Young, Dennis E. McChargue, Thad R. Leffingwell, Katrina L. Cook, 2013-03-01 Given the prevalence of substance abuse in general clinical populations it is important for healthcare providers to have knowledge and skill in the treatment of these problems Evidence Based Practice EBP involves the integration of the best evidence with clinical expertise and patient values This text is designed as a bridge for practitioners that will provide up to date evidence reviews as well as information on how to best keep up with emerging trends in the field The editors have gathered expert authors to provide a much needed summary of the current status of the evidence based practice for both the assessment and treatment of specific substance use disorders
