Ascendancy The Arena Ascendancy Legacy 1:

Authority, Ascendancy, and Supremacy Gregory O. Hall, 2013-11-12 Authority Ascendancy and Supremacy examines the American Chinese and Russian Big 3 competition for power and influence in the Post Cold War Era With the ascension of regional powers such as India Iran Brazil and Turkey the Big 3 dynamic is an evolving one which cannot be ignored because of its effect to not only reshape regional security but also control influence and power in world affairs How does one define a global or regional power in the Post Cold War Era How does the relationships among the Big 3 influence regional actors Gregory O Hall utilizes country data from primary and secondary sources to reveal that since the early 1990s competition for influence and power among the Big 3 has intensified and could result in armed confrontation among the major powers He assesses the state of affairs in each country s economic resource military social demographic and political spheres In addition events data which focuses on international interactions facilitates identifying trends in Big 3 interactions as well as their concerns and affairs with regional players Opinion data drawn from policy makers scholarly interviews and survey research data identifies foreign policy interests among the Big 3 as well non Big 3 foreign policy behaviors With its singular focus on American Chinese and Russian interactions policy interests and behaviors Authority Ascendancy and Supremacy represents a significant contribution for understanding and managing Post Cold War conflicts and promises to be an important book

The Best We Share Christoph Brumann, 2021-03-03 The UNESCO World Heritage Convention is one of the most widely ratified international treaties and a place on the World Heritage List is a widely coveted mark of distinction Building on ethnographic fieldwork at Committee sessions interviews and documentary study the book links the change in operations of the World Heritage Committee with structural nation centeredness vulnerable procedures for evaluation monitoring and decision making and loose heritage conceptions that have been inconsistently applied As the most ambitious study of the World Heritage arena so far this volume dissects the inner workings of a prominent global body demonstrating the power of ethnography in the highly formalised and diplomatic context of a multilateral organisation

Rock Music Data Hannah Martin, 2025-02-22 Rock Music Data explores the evolution of rock music through the objective lens of data analysis moving beyond subjective opinions to examine sales figures concert attendance and chart performance This approach provides unique insights into the genre s commercial and cultural impact revealing hidden trends and challenging conventional wisdom about rock s trajectory For instance sales data pinpoints peak popularity periods while attendance records demonstrate the increasing scale of rock performances highlighting how the music industry grew alongside the genre The book approaches its subject chronologically beginning with the rise of rock and roll in the 1950s and 60s tracing its explosion using sales figures and chart data It then analyzes the arena rock era of the 70s and 80s using concert attendance records to demonstrate the increasing commercialization of rock Finally the fragmentation of rock in the 90s and 2000s is examined using data to pinpoint the rise of alternative rock grunge and the impact of digital music making it valuable to anyone interested in music history and the music industry Joe Garba's Legacy Fatima Nduka-Eze, 2012-05-02 Joe Garba's Legacy Selected Speeches and Lectures On National Governance Confronting Apartheid and Foreign Policy Joseph Nanven Garba came to international attention in July 1975 as a member of Supreme Military Council in Nigeria's new military government. Then a Colonel, the commander of the Brigade of Guards and a distinguished career officer, fate which some call luck thrust upon him the role of Commissioner Minister for External Affairs after initially being slotted for the Transport portfolio. A diplomatic neophyte, Garba who characterized himself as the most undiplomatic soldier there was would learn the finer points and also the caprices of international diplomacy on the job. He did well serving as Nigeria's foreign minister from 1975-1978 and consequently holding key diplomatic, academic and political positions all which offered him the unfettered pulpit to speak assertively on national and international issues within his remit. When Garba spoke, people listened for he was eloquent, had the personality and did not dodge heady issues. He had gone from an unknown quantity whose appointment as Foreign Minister had elicited from the Nigerian intelligentsia the terse reaction: Garba, Who? to become a skillful and renowned diplomat and an assured voice of Nigeria. The thirty-two speeches and lectures in this volume represent just a fraction of the many he delivered. They are presented in remembrance and as a befitting legacy on the tenth anniversary of his passing Transamerican Literary Relations and the Nineteenth-Century Public Sphere Anna Brickhouse, 2004-09-02 This wide-ranging comparative study argues for a fundamental reassessment of the literary history of the nineteenth-century United States within the transamerican and multilingual contexts that shaped it. Drawing on an array of texts in English, French and Spanish by both canonical and neglected writers and activists, Anna Brickhouse investigates interactions between US, Latin American and Caribbean literatures. Her many examples and case studies include the Mexican genealogies of Nathaniel Hawthorne, the rewriting of Uncle Tom's Cabin by a Haitian dramatist and a French Caribbean translation of the poetry of Phillis Wheatley. Brickhouse uncovers lines of literary influence and descent linking Philadelphia and Havana, Port au Prince and Boston, Paris and New Orleans. She argues for a new understanding of this most formative period of literary production in the United States as a transamerican renaissance, a rich era of literary border crossing and transcontinental cultural exchange The Hawke Legacy Gerry Bloustien, Barbara Comber, Alison Mackinnon, 2009 Bob Hawke was a popular and effective Prime Minister whose economic and social reforms are acknowledged to have shaped modern Australia. The book offers a timely look at the legacy of the Hawke era, 1983-1991, by considering both the achievements of his ministry and what remains as unfinished business. The Hawke Legacy includes interviews with Bob Hawke, with his former speechwriter Graeme Freudenberg and with former Senator Rosemary Crowley, contributions from two former members of the Hawke Government and scholarly accounts from historical, political, economic, educational and Indigenous perspectives Elites João de Pina-Cabral, Antónia Pedroso de Lima, 2020-08-28 Wealth and power characterize elites, yet despite the strong cultural influences they exert, their study remains underdeveloped. Partly because of complications resulting from access scholars have tended to focus on groups affected by elite governance rather than on elites themselves. It is often overlooked that in order to continue through time elites have to empower new members. Choice has to be exercised over who achieves leadership both by reference to the elite group itself and to the wider group over which it holds power. This book fills a gap in the current literature by providing the first rigorous interrogation of the choice and succession strategies of elites in various cultural contexts from the transmission and preservation of financial power in urban contexts to the complex relation between subjectivity and the transmission of leadership positions in places as varied as the United States, Northern Italy and Lisbon. Various elite succession types are discussed from self-avowedly traditional leaders to the aristocracy where choice is practically non-existent to situations where leaders are elected from among a group of peers. The relationship between familial property and choice of successor in landholding families, small business enterprises and peasant communities is also examined as are ethnic monopolies.

Uncovering Heian Japan Thomas LaMarre, 2000. Literary criticism of classical Japanese poetry focusing on the emergence of Kokin Wakashū, an imperial anthology of waka poetry compiled in the 9th century.

Wall Memorials and Heritage Sybille Frank, 2016-06-17. Analysing the transformation of Berlin's former Allied border control point Checkpoint Charlie into a global heritage industry, this volume provides an introduction to and a theoretically informed structuring of the interdisciplinary international heritage debate. This crucial case study demonstrates that an unregulated global heritage industry has developed in Berlin which capitalizes on the internationally very attractive but locally still very painful heritage of the Berlin Wall. Frank explores the conflicts that occur when private commercial interests in interpreting and selling history to an international audience clash with traditional institutionalized public forms of local and national heritage making and commemorative practices and with the victims' perspectives. Wall Memorials and Heritage illustrates existing approaches to heritage research and develops them in dialogue with Berlin's traditions of conveying history and the specific configuration of the heritage industry at Checkpoint Charlie. Productively integrating theory with empirical evidence, this innovative book enriches the international literature on heritage and its economic and political contexts.

Handbook on Urban History of Early India Aloka Parasher Sen, 2024-10-23. This handbook addresses issues around urban growth in early India. It provides theoretical and empirical insights from the perspective of the different regions of the subcontinent using various sources. The book's chapters discuss how early urban forms evolved, transformed and survived on the subcontinent beginning with the third millennium BCE. This volume also looks at how urban space gradually emerged in borderland areas of the subcontinent and hill areas which throw up relevant issues and questions of how we need to review elements of what we define as urban. It includes chapters on both the early historic and early medieval periods. The book provides a comprehensive view of early India's urban history, insights into metallic money and cities, the origin of cities and waterways, geospatial and remote sensing techniques to reflect on the emergence of historic settlements and so on. The contributors have presented the dialectical relationship between the city and the country in their chapters The book covers themes such as the Indus Valley civilization the rise of cities in the Ganges valley the cultural setting of the multi ethnic and multi lingual Kushan cities the dynamic of the growth of cities in the ancient Tamilakam theories of urbanization archaeological and epigraphic material reflecting on the first cities in different regions of the subcontinent etc It is an invaluable resource for students researchers and scholars in history architecture and archaeology as well as scholars working on Indic studies
