South and East Asian Cinemas Across Borders Clelia Clini, Rohit K. Dasgupta, Yanling Yang, 2021-11-29 This edited volume focuses on South and East Asian cinema exploring transnational connections between these film industries from the point of view of narratives topics and themes as well as in terms of co productions At a time of resurgent nationalisms and increasing fortifications of actual and symbolic borders the chapters in this book explore cinematic work that challenge these boundaries and promote a reflection on the social cultural political and economic value of international exchanges and collaborations within the context of Asia Indeed notwithstanding the aforementioned tendency to implement border policing and the revival of nationalist sentiments South and East Asian cinemas retain a strong transnational character as not only genres and themes are borrowed and exchanged across borders but also the popularity of the Indian Chinese and Korean film industries extend well beyond their national borders within Asia as well as in the West The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Transnational Screens

On the Legacy of Maxine Hong Kingston Sämi Ludwig, Nicoleta Alexoae-Zagni, 2014 This book is a collection of recent scholarship on Maxine Hong Kingston gathered on the occasion of the very first conference ever devoted exclusively to Kingston and to celebrate her opera omnia Featuring the work of researchers from four continents the book represents the cosmopolitan reception of the most important Asian American author In addition to many new angles on her two canonical postmodern autobiographies The Woman Warrior and China Men this collection also tackles Kingston's less frequently discussed writings and her most recent publications Parallel readings and comparisons further test her legacy in the sense of her enduring influence on younger Asian American writers Though it is a conference book this peer reviewed volume includes additional articles by selected scholars It also contains original presentations by Maxine and her husband Earl Kingston Series Contributions to Asian American Literary Studies Vol
