Judgement and Eduard Hanslick's conception of the imagination Part III details Kim's thoughts on several topics of the current debate in aesthetics among them on the difference between aesthetic and intellectual pleasure and the nature of expressiveness of music In the first of the two essays in Part III the author discusses critically Christopher Butler's interpretation of artworks as narrative and in the second Peter Kivy's theory of expressive properties Two appendices are provided one on the alienation of aesthetic experience in the common love of artworks as values and the other on performance art as an art form especially in view of the recent retrospective of Marina Abramovic MoMA New York In this appendix the author presents a critique of today's prevailing conception of art
