

AL-GHAZZALI ON KNOWING YOURSELF AND GOD

Al-Ghazzali begins his masterful Alchemy of Happiness with this topic based on the famous Tradition of the Prophet (ﷺ), "One who knows one's self knows one's Lord." In al-Ghazzali's view, everything begins by knowing who you are. He says that you should know that you are born with an outer form and an inner essence and it is that inner essence or the spiritual heart that you have to come to know in order to know who you are.

Al-Ghazzali (AD 1058-1111), the philosopher-theologian, is considered by many to be the greatest Muslim thinker after the great Companions. His life and thought played a major role in determining the ethical and spiritual values of medieval society and continues to be influential throughout the world today.

Muhammad Nur Abdus Salam, Ph. D. (Jay R. Crook) is a well-known translator who is fluent in Persian, Arabic, Turkish and Urdu.

Al Ghazzali On Knowing Yourself And God:

Al-Ghazzali on Knowing Yourself and God Ghazzālī, 2002 General Description In al Ghazzali's view everything begins by knowing who you are. He says that you should know that you are born with an outer form and an inner essence and it is that inner essence or the spiritual heart that you have to come to know in order to know who you are. In the Sphere of the Personal: New Perspectives in the Philosophy of Persons Simon Smith, James Beauregard, 2020-10-06 The papers in this collection were originally presented at the 13th International Conference on Persons held at the University of Boston in August 2015. This biennial event founded by Thomas O. Buford and Charles Conti in 1989 attracts a host of international scholars both the venerable and the aspiring. It is widely regarded as the premier event for those whose research concerns the philosophical tradition known as personalism. That tradition is perhaps best known today in its American and European manifestations although there remains a small but fiercely defended stronghold in Britain. Personalism is not an exclusively Western development; however, its roots are also found in India, China, and Japan. What unites these disparate intellectual cultures may seem quite small. There is little if any methodological or doctrinal consensus among them. They are all, however, responses to the impersonal and depersonalising forces perceived to be at work in philosophy, theology, and most recently the natural and political sciences. Their common aim is to place persons at the heart of these discourses, to defend the idea that persons are the metaphysical, epistemological, and moral bottom line, the vital clue to knowledge of self, reality, and all conceivable values. The authors in this collection do not simply reflect upon this tradition; they put it to work on a range of philosophical and theological problems, both classical and contemporary: problems of free will, personal identity, and the nature of reality, as well as the very current concerns of environmental philosophers, bio, and neuro ethicists. Their perspectives too are many and varied, so offer profound insights into key debates among other philosophical traditions such as the Kantian, Hegelian, phenomenological, and process schools. Muhammad Ali in Africana Cultural Memory James L. Conyers, Jr., Christel N. Temple, 2022-01-11 One critical priority of the discipline of Africana studies is applied memory, specifically how the record of the culture's survival and agency reveals usable and reproducible knowledge and behavior. In terms of how Muhammad Ali, as an historical actor, has left an heroic legacy that bequeaths to us a sort of inheritance, the critical task at hand is to systematically explore this historical actor's life, feats, philosophy, grit, worldview, and even his folkloric antihero to decipher his Africana cultural memory value. At the core of this edited collection is a commitment to enhance the cultural storytelling about Muhammad Ali and to critically itemize the lessons we garner from his life as allegory. The ancestral life is one that is remembered and recalled. The contributors' research uncovers Ali's local, national, and global encounters that are legacy worldviews. These perspectives give us direction for mining the critical depth of Ali's encounters, which map his memory in terms of culturally sustaining confidence, self-esteem, reinvention, immortalization, and empathy. These are the fertile seeds of Africana cultural memory which bloom into powerful markers and monuments of an epic life of hyperheroic activity relevant to cultural memory sports history politics health and aesthetics      Some Religious and Moral Teachings of Al-Ghazzali Ghazzālī, 1921      Some Religious and Moral Teachings of Al-Ghazzali Mohammed Al-Ghazzali, The Comparative Study of Religions interesting as a form of intellectual research has for many a further value in the influence it may exert upon the widening and the deepening of the religious life The practical value may become more and more acknowledged if as signs suggest the reality of the religious experience is more keenly felt and mankind recognise the place of religious goods in the highest type of life Though it is certainly premature to say that there is much serious acknowledgement and recognition of these values amongst the peoples of the world there are reasons to think that tendencies of thought and feeling in this direction are increasing in power One of the best means of aiding the Comparative Study of Religions and promoting these tendencies is by the publication of important books connected with the religions representing the views of leading thinkers and saints If we turn to Islam we find that some Western writers describe it as in a condition of progressive decay while others would have us believe that its onward march is a menace It is well to be able to avoid the obvious purpose which lies behind both contentions Nevertheless to the present writer it appears true to say that there is much stagnation in Islam In which religion is there not and that its spirit is often lost and its real teachings neglected owing to the general use of Arabic in the recitation of the Quran by persons entirely ignorant of that language and also to the prevalent mechanical conception of the character of the Quran as a form of divine revelation We believe that the Comparative Study of Religions will help to turn the attention of Muslims away from these to the emphasising of the essential spirit of Islam This should be central and normative in the rising movements of reform and rejuvenescence In this connection as bringing out this spirit it is especially appropriate both for the students of the religions and for those directly interested in the spiritual revival in Islam to publish in an easily accessible form some of the religious and moral teachings of Ghazzali A Western scholar has written of him that he is the greatest certainly the most sympathetic figure in the history of Islam the only teacher of the after generations ever put by Muslims on a level with the four great Imams And he goes on to remark further In the renaissance of Islam which is now rising to view his time will come and the new life will proceed from a renewed study of his works But Dieterici says of him As a despairing sceptic he springs suicidally into the all God i e all pervading deity of the Pantheists to kill all scientific reflection To justify such a judgment would indeed be impossible if the whole course of Ghazzali s works is taken into consideration The greatest eulogy is perhaps that of Tholuck All that is good worthy and sublime which his great soul had compassed he bestowed upon Muhammedanism and he adorned the doctrines of the Quran with so much piety and learning that in the form given them by him they seem in my opinion worthy of the assent of Christians Whatsoever was most excellent in the philosophy of Aristotle or in the Sufi mysticism he discreetly adapted to the Muhammedan theology From every school he sought the means of shedding light and honour upon religion while his sincere piety and lofty conscientiousness imparted to all his writings a sacred majesty      Religious Theories of

Personality and Psychotherapy R. Paul Olson, 2002 In this fascinating volume clinical practitioners of different Eastern and Western religious traditions examine the same clinical case offering insights interventions and explanations of transformation and healing This practical approach allows you to explore broader issues of personality theory and psychology from the perspectives of various spiritual traditions Hinduism Buddhism Taoism Judaism Christianity and Islam Marrying theory and practice spirit and psyche this book offers profound insights and effective interventions Mental health professionals clergy and scholars in religion cross cultural studies personality counseling and psychotherapy will find this book invaluable

Traditional Islamic Environmentalism Tarik M. Quadir, 2013-09-16 This work examines the relevance of traditional Islamic thought and practices for a lasting solution to the current environmental crisis Quadir describes how Seyyed Hossein Nasr challenges Muslims to reclaim their traditional intellectual and Sufi heritage as powerful means toward a most thoughtful approach to the crisis In so doing Nasr urges us to take a critical look at the consequences of the worldviews generated by modern science and technology and offers bold solutions for a more caring relationship between man and nature The book argues that only a revival of the traditional worldview which perceives all entities of nature as signs of God can effectively respond to the crisis our planet faces The Path of Worshippers to the Paradise of the Lord of the Worlds

Imam Abu Hamid Muhammad al-Ghazzali, 2011-11-01 The Path of Worshippers to the Paradise of the Lord of the Universe is an authoritative book and a guideline on practical Sufism irfan i amali It is also a mirror to the soul of its author In this book Ghazzali speaks not only as a scholar but also as a master and sincerely shares his spiritual experiences with his readers in a simple language and an intimate tone These qualities of the book penetrate into the depth of the heart of the reader The importance of the book lies in the fact that its author was the most prominent theologian and jurist of his time and its teachings are as valid today as they were when the author wrote the book just before his death in 505 1111 The
