American Environmentalism J. Michael Martinez, 2013-06-20 Protecting the natural environment and promoting sustainability have become important objectives but achieving such goals presents myriad challenges for even the most committed environmentalist American Environmentalism Philosophy History and Public Policy examines whether competing interests can be reconciled while developing consistent coherent effective public policy to regulate uses and protection of the natural environment without destroying the national economy It then reviews a range of possible solutions The book delves into key normative concepts that undergird American perspectives on nature by providing an overview of philosophical concepts found in the western intellectual tradition the presuppositions inherent in neoclassical economics and anthropocentric human centered and biocentric earth centered positions on sustainability It traces the evolution of attitudes about nature from the time of the Ancient Greeks through Europeans in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance the Enlightenment and the American Founders the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and up to the present Building on this foundation the author examines the political landscape as non governmental organizations NGOs industry leaders and government officials struggle to balance industrial development with environmental concerns Outrageous claims silly misrepresentations bogus arguments absurd contentions and overblown prophecies of impending calamities are bandied about by many parties on all sides of the debate industry spokespeople elected representatives unelected regulators concerned citizens and environmental NGOs alike In lieu of descending into this morass the author circumvents the silliness to explore the crucial issues through a more focused disciplined approach Rather than engage in acrimonious debate over minutiae as so often occurs in the context of green claims he recasts the issue in a way that provides a cohesive look at all sides This effort may be quixotic but how else to cut the Gordian knot Glass in Buildings Standards Association of Australia.
