Horae Apocalypticæ Vol. 2 E. B. Elliot, 2018-03-02 Horae Apocalypticæ is an eschatological study written by Edward Bishop Elliott. The book, as its long title sets out, is a commentary on the apocalypse, critical and historical, including also an examination of the chief prophecies of Daniel illustrated by an apocalyptic chart and engravings from medals and other extant monuments of antiquity, with appendices containing besides other matter a sketch of the history of apocalyptic interpretation, the chief apocalyptic counter schemes, and indices. Horae Apocalypticæ Hours with the Apocalypse is doubtless the most elaborate work ever produced on the Apocalypse. Without an equal in exhaustive research in its field, it was occasioned by the futurist attack on the Historical School of interpretation. Begun in 1837, its 2,500 pages are buttressed by some 10,000 invaluable references to ancient and modern works. Theology Explained and Defended Timothy Dwight, 2009-05. With our American Philosophy and Religion series, Applewood reissues many primary sources published throughout American history. Through these books, scholars, interpreters, students, and non-academics alike can see the thoughts and beliefs of Americans who came before us. The Publishers Weekly, 1924. Edward Burne-Jones, Victorian Artist-dreamer Stephen Wildman, Edward Coley Burne-Jones, John Christian, Alan Crawford, Laurence Des Cars, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Birmingham Museums and Art Gallery, Musée d'Orsay, 1998. This publication is issued in conjunction with the 1998 exhibition of the same name held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and scheduled for venues in England and France. Burne-Jones 1833-1898 created a style that had widespread influence on both British and European art: a narrative style derived from medieval legend and fused with the influence of Italian Renaissance masters; a style that ceded popularity to a growing taste for abstraction at the end of the 19th century. Now Burne-Jones's star has risen again, and this catalogue contains full discussion of his life and work and representation of his prodigious output of drawings and paintings. 9 5x12 5.
