Salvatore, Ruggero Andrisano Ruggieri

Assisted An Autobiography:

Assisted John Stockton, Kerry L. Pickett, 2014-10-28 A fast gritty durable player who could read a basketball floor as well as anyone who ever played the game John Stockton left the NBA after nineteen seasons with the Utah Jazz holding a massive assist record including the career mark 15 806 He also twice led the league in steals with a career total of 3 265 retiring as the NBA s all time leader During Stockton s career the Jazz never missed the playoffs Coach Frank Layden said Nobody thought that he was going to be this good Nobody But the thing was nobody measured his heart John s autobiography Assisted pulls back the curtain on his very personal life to show fans a thoughtful recounting of the people places and events that influenced John along his path of extraordinary success This book clearly illustrates the importance of his family his faith and his unparalleled competitive spirit From publisher description

Modeling Ethnomusicology Timothy Rice, 2017-03-02 Thirty years of thinking and theorizing about the field come together in Modeling Ethnomusicology a collection of essays by one of its leading figures Author Timothy Rice weaves together his most important work about music and the way ethnomusicologists study it and from this work he proposes a new model for constructing how ethnomusicologists theorize as they conduct research

Following the Elephant Bruno Nettl, 2016-10-15 In Following the Elephant Bruno Nettl edits articles drawn from fifty years of the pioneering journal Ethnomusicology The roster of acclaimed scholars hail from across generations using other works in the collection as launching points for dialogues on the history and accomplishments of the field Nettl divides the collection into three sections In the first authors survey ethnomusicology from perspectives that include thoughts on defining and conceptualizing the field and its concepts The second section offers milestones in the literature that critique major works The authors look at what separates ethnomusicology from other forms of music research and discuss foundational issues The final section presents scholars considering ethnomusicology including recent trends from the perspective of specific but abiding strands of thought Contributors Charlotte J Frisbie Mieczysław Kolinski Gerhard Kubik George List Alan P Merriam Bruno Nettl David Pruett Adelaida Reyes Timothy Rice Jesse D Ruskin Kay Kaufman Shelemay Gabriel Solis Jeff Todd Titon J Lawrence Witzleben and Deborah Wong

Methods of Psychological Intervention Gordon Sammut, Juliet Foster, Sergio Salvatore, Ruggero Andrisano Ruggieri, 2017-01-01 Methods of Psychological Intervention provides a rich collection of chapters that provide an invaluable resource to scholars researchers and practitioners in psychology Psychological interventions are becoming increasingly popular in contemporary societies This volume is intended to help psychologists and other professionals understand how general psychological knowledge can serve to guide local and particular interventions The present volume helps bridge the gap between general knowledge in the psychological sciences and particular instances of human behavior as it takes place in everyday life The volume forms part of the series Yearbook of Idiographic Science Authors draw on principles of idiographic science to formulate interventions applicable to a broad diversity of settings and institutions such as educational settings organizations and medical settings It similarly deals with various psychological behaviours targeted for intervention such as gambling family therapy and crime The volume will be of interest to scholars researchers and practitioners working in the fields of psychology social work counseling family therapy education organizational behavior criminal justice

Qualitative Research Interviewing Tom Wengraf, 2001-05-09 Wengraf provides a comprehensive theoretical and practical guide to the planning conduct and interpretative analysis of data by semi structured interviewing methods Forthright and frank in his comments about the limitations and practical implications of varying choices which investigators have to make in designing their research projects Reading this text is like having a tough but expert and caring mentor who wants you to do the best research possible but will not hesitate to tell you when your ideology and assumptions skew that possibility Vincent W Hevern Le Moyne College USA Unique in its conceptual coherence and the level of practical detail this book provides a comprehensive resource for those concerned with the practice of semi structured interviewing the most commonly used interview approach in social research and in particular for in depth biographic narrative interviewing It covers the full range of practices from the identification of topics through to strategies for writing up research findings in diverse ways

High Hopes Stanley A. Renshon, 2014-04-23 Now in paperback this perceptive psychological portrait of Clinton and his presidency investigates whether Clinton has demonstrated the necessary qualities of judgment vision character and skill as well as his ambition and extreme self confidence Renshon traces the development of Clinton s character from his early family experiences to his adolescence and long political career including the controversy surrounding Clinton s draft dodging and marriage Blending Qualitative and Quantitative Research Methods in Theses and Dissertations R. Murray Thomas, 2003-03-14 Aimed at empowering students with the information necessary to choose the best approach to fit their needs the text outlines numerous research options from varying viewpoints and highlights the procedures involved with putting each method into practice Qualitative Research Journal This book offers a broad spectrum of research methodologies within one text that is easy to understand R Murray Thomas examines educational research as a series of simple and complex questions This integrated presentation of research methodologies makes this a unique text Roxana Della Vecchia Assistant Dean College of Education Towson University Traditionally graduate students have written theses and dissertations that take either qualitative or quantitative approach But in the current environment many students are opting for a mixed methods approach that combines some quantitative methods with qualitative methods This is a growing trend yet no book exists that applies mixed methods to writing the dissertation or theses This book aims to fill that gap

Narrating the Self and Nation in Kenyan Autobiographical Writings Samuel Ndogo, 2016 Author Samuel Ndogo offers an understanding of the autobiographical genre in contemporary Kenyan literature He draws attention to life writing as a form of cultural re imagination in post colonial Africa Taking into consideration contradictions and paradoxes of referentiality in life writing this book examines the autobiographies of Jaramogi Oginga

Odinga Ngugi wa Thiong'o Wangari Maathai and Bethwell Ogot The analysis dwells on self representations in correlation with imaginations of the Kenyan nation in these works Thus the study gives a critical account into the modern memoir the forms and styles it takes the ways in which these authors tend to understand and present their lives Series Contributions to African Research Beitr ge zur Afrikaforschung Vol 63 Subject African Studies Literary Criticism Fifty Years of Personality Psychology Kenneth H. Craik, Robert Hogan, Raymond N. Wolfe, 2013-06-29 Assembling original papers by the field's foremost investigators this history demonstrates the continuity and progress made across five decades of personality psychology research In addition to providing a historical perspective for the discipline the work aims to inspire a more coherent agenda for future research
