Ethics and Nostalgia in the Contemporary Novel John J. Su, 2005-11-24 Images of loss and yearning played a crucial role in literary texts written in the later part of the twentieth century Despite deep cultural differences novelists from Africa the Caribbean Great Britain and the United States share a sense that the economic social and political forces associated with late modernity have evoked widespread nostalgia within the communities in which they write In this original and wide ranging study John J Su explores the relationship between nostalgia and ethics in novels across the English speaking world He challenges the tendency in literary studies to characterise memory as positive and nostalgia as necessarily negative Instead this book argues that nostalgic fantasies are crucial to the ethical visions presented by topical novels From Jean Rhys to Wole Soyinka and from V S Naipaul to Toni Morrison Su identifies nostalgia as a central concern in the twentieth century novel
