South African-Based African Migrants' Responses to COVID-19 Pineteh Angu, Tyanai Masiya, 2022-05-27 This edited volume interrogates the intersection between viral pandemics transnational migration and the politics of belonging in South Africa during COVID 19 The chapters draw on theoretical conceptions such as biopolitics necropolitics xenophobia afrophobia and autochthonous citizenship to understand how South Africa has responded to the devastating effects of COVID 19 and the implications for the lives and livelihoods of African migrants The book is written against the backdrop of deepening socioeconomic and political problems in South Africa which have been exacerbated by the pandemic exclusionary response strategies employed by the government and populist discourses about the dangers of hosting an increasing population of African migrants Drawing on the experiences of migrants from Cameroon DRC Nigeria Somalia and Zimbabwe this book explores the challenges of these diaspora communities during lockdowns their survival strategies and the effects on their social existence during and post the pandemic From these case studies we are reminded about the paradoxes of belonging and how COVID 19 continues to reveal different forms of global inequalities They also remind us about the burdens of displacement and emplacement and how they are repeatedly politicised in South Africa as the government grapples with endemic socioeconomic and political problems The conclusion of the book examines the implications of COVID 19 for migration across the African continent and particularly for South Africa as we witness new waves of xenophobic afrophobic vigilantism driven by Operation Dudula

Leadership Approaches to Negotiate Challenges in a Changing Education Landscape Leentjie van Jaarsveld, Kobus Mentz, Charl C. Wolhuter, 2020-12-31 The argumentative point of departure of this scholarly book is the common conviction of specialists in the field of education in South Africa that the national education system is not at a satisfactory level in both the academic and the public discourse Such allegations are made and frequently stronger adjectives than non satisfactory are used Results of international test series in which South Africa has participated such as the 2015 TIMSS tests confirm the negative verdicts found in the public and scholarly discourse This book aims to argue that although the lack of performance could be attributed to a multiplicity of factors one factor that can make a difference in the achievement levels obtained by learners in schools is leadership The book demonstrates that a particular problem of both the scholarly and the public discourse on education in South Africa is an overtone of defeatism or resignation blaming all ills in the education system and educational institutions on historical legacies and or contextual factors such as socio economic deprivation in the catchment areas of schools or poor resources and infrastructure This collected work was inspired by a recently published spate of articles on top performing schools including top performing schools in rural communities in which it was demonstrated that good leadership can overcome such contextual and other challenges The book unpacks the issue of leadership in South African schools from a variety of perspectives thus contributing to the development of the scholarly discourse on Educational Leadership in South Africa The target audience of the book is scholars of Educational Leadership The research reported in the chapters draw on a wide range of methodologies including empirical survey research questionnaires and interviews critical literature surveys and the comparative method
