Being Caribou Five Months On Foot With A Caribou Herd:

Being Caribou , Being Caribou Karsten Heuer,2009-07-10 Caribou Herds of Northwest Alaska, 1850-2000

Ernest S. Burch Jr.,2012-09-15 In his final major publication Ernest S Tiger Burch Jr reconstructs the distribution of caribou herds in northwest Alaska using data and information from research conducted over the past several decades as well as sources that predate western science by more than one hundred years Additionally he explores human and natural factors that contributed to the demise and recovery of caribou and reindeer populations during this time Burch provides an exhaustive list of published and unpublished literature and interviews that will intrigue laymen and experts alike The unflinching assessment of the roles that humans and wolves played in the dynamics of caribou and reindeer herds will undoubtedly strike a nerve Supplemental essays before and after the unfinished work add context about the author the project of the book and the importance of both Caribou Roman Patrick,2010-08-01 Introduces the caribou describing their physical characteristics eating habits and migratory behavior

Booktalking Around the World Sonja Cole,2010-10-21 This text contains convenient ready to go booktalks for contemporary fiction and nonfiction books set in every continent around the globe useful for librarians and other educators of grades three through nine A public librarian introducing young readers to stories from around the world A social studies teacher wanting to offer students extra credit on a unit about ancient Greece A Spanish teacher who needs to generate some excitement and interest about Hispanic culture All of these educators can achieve their goals by utilizing the internationally themed booktalk suggestions in this text Booktalking Around the World Great Global Reads for Ages 9 14 This collection of booktalks and book lists is designed to be an invaluable resource for teachers as well as school and public librarians seeking geographically themed booktalks for newer books published from 2000 2010 Because studying the countries of the world is a major part of most school curricula this book will support or extend this important curricular area All the booktalks in this collection are aimed at children aged 9 14 All seven continents are represented but the United States is excluded Exploring Ecological Hermeneutics

Norman C. Habel,Peter L. Trudinger,2008 What has hermeneutics to do with ecology What texts if any come to mind when you consider what the scriptures might say about environmental ethics To help readers think critically and clearly about the Bible s relation to modern environmental issues this volume expands the horizons of biblical interpretation to introduce ecological hermeneutics moving beyond a simple discussion about Earth and its constituents as topics to a reading of the text from the perspective of Earth In these groundbreaking essays sixteen scholars seek ways to identify with Earth as they read and retrieve the role or voice of Earth a voice previously unnoticed or suppressed within the biblical text and its interpretation This study enriches eco theology with eco exegesis a radical and timely dialogue between ecology and hermeneutics The contributors are Vicky Balabanski Laurie Braaten Norman Habel Theodore Hiebert Cameron Howard Melissa Tubbs Loya Hilary Marlow Susan Miller Raymond Person A Sustaining the West Liza Piper,Lisa Szabo-Jones,2015-04-06 Western Canada's natural environment faces intensifying threats from industrialization in agriculture and resource development social and cultural complicity in these destructive practices and most recently the negative effects of global climate change The complex nature of the problems being addressed calls for productive interdisciplinary solutions In this book arts and humanities scholars and literary and visual artists tackle these pressing environmental issues in provocative and transformative ways Their commitment to environmental causes emerges through the fields of environmental history environmental and ecocriticism ecofeminism ecoart ecopoetry and environmental journalism This indispensable and timely resource constitutes a sustained cross pollinating conversation across the environmental humanities about forms of representation and activism that enable ecological knowledge and ethical action on behalf of Western Canadian environments yet have global reach Among the developments in the contributors construction of environmental knowledge are a focus on the power of sentiment in linking people to the fate of nature and the need to decolonize social and environmental relations and assumptions in the West Gotcha Again for Guys! Kathleen A.

Baxter,Marcia Agness Kochel,2010-10-19 Here's help in selecting current nonfiction books that will get boys excited about reading Enticing boys to read is still a hot topic With chapters like Disasters and Mysteries Gross and Disgusting Machines and the Military and Prehistoric Creatures Gotcha Again for Guys More Nonfiction Books to Get Boys Excited about Reading is a treasure trove of recent nonfiction books that will interest boys in grades 3-8 This sixth entry in Baxter and Kochel's Gotcha series covers books published between 2007 and 2009 with a few oldies but goodies also included The book is organized into 12 thematic chapters each of which offers booktalks for a select number of titles followed by a list of other high interest well reviewed titles that correspond with the chapter's topic Features new to this volume include numerous booklists to be copied and saved as well as profiles of new and innovative nonfiction authors writing for this age group In addition the book features interviews with seven male authors of nonfiction books for boys Caribou Joyce

Regarding Life Belinda Smaill,2016-09-21 Contends that the narrative and aesthetic qualities of the documentary genre enable new understandings of animals and animal human relationships As indicated by the success of such films as March of the Penguins and Food Inc the documentary has become the preeminent format for rendering animals and nature onscreen In Regarding Life Belinda Smaill brings together examples from a broad array of moving image contexts including wildlife film and television advocacy documentary avant garde nonfiction and new media to identify a new documentary terrain in which the representation of animals in the wild and in industrial settings is becoming markedly more complex and increasingly more involved with pivotal ecological debates over species loss food production and science While attending to some of the most discussed documentaries of the last two decades including Grizzly Man Food Inc Sweetgrass Our Daily Bread and Darwin's Nightmare the book also draws on lesser known film examples and is one of the first to bring film studies understandings to new media such as YouTube The result is a study that melds film studies and animal studies to explore how documentary films render both humans and animals and to what political ends A brilliant cogent and timely look at the intersection of animals the environment food and the people who enjoy and consume them This is the most solid book on film I have read in quite a while and it will be taken up with much enthusiasm by documentary scholars animal rights activists eco warriors and a broad public that is interested in one or another or all of the subjects covered here David Desser author of American Jewish Filmmakers Second Edition
