Economics Ha-Joon Chang, 2014-05-27 What is economics What can and can't it explain about the world Why does it matter Ha Joon Chang teaches economics at Cambridge University and writes a column for the Guardian The Observer called his book 23 Things They Don't Tell You About Capitalism which was a no 1 bestseller a witty and timely debunking of some of the biggest myths surrounding the global economy He won the Wassily Leontief Prize for advancing the frontiers of economic thought and is a vocal critic of the failures of our current economic system The European Union: A Citizen's Guide

Chris Bickerton, 2016-05-12 The essential Pelican introduction to the European Union its history its politics and its role today For most of us today Europe refers to the European Union At the centre of a seemingly never ending crisis the EU remains a black box closed to public understanding Is it a state An empire Is Europe ruled by Germany or by European bureaucrats Does a single European economy exist after all these years of economic integration And should the EU have been awarded the Nobel peace prize in 2012 Critics tell us the EU undermines democracy Are they right In this provocative volume political scientist Chris Bickerton provides an answer to all these key questions and more at a time when understanding what the EU is and what it does is more important than ever before Intermediate Microeconomics

Robert Mochrie, 2017-09-16 This innovative textbook contains everything students need to know on an intermediate microeconomics course Combining classic theory and models with the latest developments it gently guides learners through the topics and helps them to become increasingly independent Mathematical understanding is a crucial part of mastering the subject but can be tricky to obtain Consequently numerical tools and engaging exercises are expertly woven into the broader conceptual discussion of economic theory This process is progressive and incremental with steps explained in great detail in the opening chapters to help students gain mathematical fluency and confidence A microeconomics textbook that is essential reading for any intermediate level course at university Although primarily aimed at two semester undergraduate modules the comprehensive and accessible writing style means that it is also suitable for certain postgraduate and one semester courses The author provides helpful notes on how to adapt the book to your course The Routledge International Handbook of Community

Psychology Carolyn Kagan, Jacqueline Akhurst, Jaime Alfaro, Rebecca Lawthom, Michael Richards, Alba Zambrano, 2022-03-17 This handbook offers a unique critical and cross disciplinary approach to the study of Community Psychology showing how it can address the systemic challenges arising from multiple crises facing people across the world Addressing some of the most pressing issues of our times the text shows how Community Psychology can contribute to principled social change giving voice enabling civic participation and supporting the realignment of social and economic power within planetary boundaries Featuring a collaboration of contributions from world leading academics early career researchers and community leaders each chapter gives theory and context with practical examples of working with those living in precarious situations on matters that concern them most and highlights positive ways to contribute to progressive change The editors examine economic ecological demographic gender violence energy social and cultural and political crises in relation to psychological theories as well as public policy and lived experiences presenting an approach situated at the intersection of public policy and lived experiences Viewed through four different perspectives or lenses a critical lens a praxis lens an ecological lens and a reflective lens this compendium of critical explorations into Community Psychology shows how it can contribute to a fairer more just resilient and sustainable world Also examining the lessons learnt from the COVID 19 pandemic about the pervading nature of social inequality but also the potential of solidarity movements ranging from local to international levels this is ideal reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students and scholars in Community Psychology and related areas including social psychology clinical psychology and applied psychology Object-Oriented Ontology Graham Harman, 2018-03-01

What is reality really Are humans more special or important than the non human objects we perceive How does this change the way we understand the world We humans tend to believe that things are only real in as much as we perceive them an idea reinforced by modern philosophy which privileges us as special radically different in kind from all other objects But as Graham Harman one of the theory's leading exponents shows Object Oriented Ontology rejects the idea of human specialness the world he states is clearly not the world as manifest to humans At the heart of this philosophy is the idea that objects whether real fictional natural artificial human or non human are mutually autonomous In this brilliant new introduction Graham Harman lays out the history ideas and impact of Object Oriented Ontology taking in everything from art and literature politics and natural science along the way Graham Harman is Distinguished Professor of Philosophy at SCI Arc Los Angeles A key figure in the contemporary speculative realism movement in philosophy and for his development of the field of object oriented ontology he was named by Art Review magazine as one of the 100 most influential figures in international art

Economics Imperialism and Interdisciplinarity: The Watershed and After Ben Fine, 2023-10-20 In Economics Imperialism and Interdisciplinarity The Watershed and After Ben Fine selects and adds to his key articles tracking economics imperialism through three phases focusing on the last decade of the third phase anything goes as with freakonomics Each article is accompanied by a preamble setting the context in which it appeared with a new overall introduction and literature survey drawing out the overall significance for contemporary scholarship Ranging over mainstream and heterodox economics the disputes between them the relationship between economics and other disciplines and authors such as Lazear Stiglitz and Akerlof the accelerating presence of economics imperialism is documented alongside its perverse critical neglect The volume is imperative for those engaging in political economy across the social sciences Formation for Knowing God F Gerald Downing, 2015-09-24 In this challenging and engaging discussion F Gerald Downing draws on evidence from Ancient Jewish and New Testament scriptures to analyse the changing history of the concept of revelation within Christianity Through the discussion of central concepts in the philosophy of language such as reference and identity Downing provides a comprehensive analysis of our notion of the concept of knowledge through revelation and self revelation Formation for Knowing God contains an overview of the history of the debate regarding the methods and extent of God's revelation specifically his self revelation Downing argues that the conviction that God is self-revealed stems from eighteenth century Enlightenment debates and has no roots in the early Christian tradition from which we learn that God is incomprehensible Downing rejects the view that it was the primary purpose of Christ's death to show God's love claiming that this is unsupported by the scriptural evidence The positive thesis argued by Downing is that what has been revealed to us is not a matter of knowledge but a matter of faith Downing's Formation for Knowing God will challenge the assumptions of its readers providing an alternative and thought provoking approach to the nature of knowledge and certainty within Christianity Values, Identity, and Sustainable Development in Africa Ezra Chitando, Eunice Kamaara, 2022-11-04 This book contends that Africa's sustainable development must be built on African identity and values Contributors reflect on the role of values in Africa's effort to overcome poverty the focus of SDG 1 The volume reflects on how indigenous values such as Ubuntu constitute a critical resource in addressing poverty It reiterates the importance of positioning the response to poverty in Africa on the continent's own home grown values Contributors also interrogate how values such as integrity hard work tolerance solidarity respect and others serve to position Africa strategically to overcome poverty The volume focuses on how values can help Africa to overcome challenges such as corruption violence intolerance competitive ethnicity xenophobia misplaced priorities and others It provides fresh and critical reflections on the role of values and identity in anchoring Africa's development in the light of SDG 1 An Introduction to Climate Change Economics and Policy Felix R. FitzRoy, Elissaios Papyrakis, 2016-04-14 The 2nd edition of An Introduction to Climate Change Economics and Policy explains the key scientific economic and policy issues related to climate change in a completely up to date introduction for anyone interested and students at all levels in various related courses including environmental economics international development geography politics and international relations FitzRoy and Papyrakis highlight how economists and policymakers often misunderstand the science of climate change underestimate the growing threat to future civilization and survival and exaggerate the costs of radical measures needed to stabilize the climate In contrast they show how direct and indirect costs of fossil fuels particularly the huge health costs of local pollution actually exceed the investment needed for transition to an almost zero carbon economy in two or three decades using available technology
