The Gift of Administration Donald Senior, 2016 In his First Letter to the Corinthians Paul cites administrators as one of God s gifts to the Christian community 1 Cor 12 28 But many who serve in administrative service today have difficulty seeing how their everyday work is an expression of discipleship This book written by an experienced administrator and noted biblical scholar shows how the various functions of institutional administration are deeply rooted in the Scriptures and are a genuine expression of our call to discipleship Leadership mission statements and planning finances and fund raising personnel issues communications and public relations all of these seemingly secular activities serve to build up the Body of Christ and deserve to be recognized as authentic Christian ministry To see administrative service as a biblically rooted gift can help those involved in this way of life to find deeper and more satisfying spiritual meaning in what they do Achieving Excellence in Fundraising Genevieve G. context of ministry and mission Abundance Michael R. Ward, 2020-01-07 This book by pastor and certified fund raising executive CFRE Michael R Ward provides church leaders a resource to lead their congregations to a new culture of generosity and abundance that raises more money as well as more disciples Written specifically with pastors congregation councils finance committees and stewardship teams in mind this book encourages and guides a process of study reflection and action that is clear and practical Ward taps into years of experience fundraising in the nonprofit sector to address the ongoing challenges of financing ministry His goal is to empower congregations and other nonprofit organizations to expect and plan for generosity The book moves from grounding stewardship ministry biblically and theologically to setting up the basic building blocks for strong stewardship including board development stewardship planning and strategic planning From there it addresses practical tactics such as case development communication donor mentality roadblocks volunteers and steps to a gift Real life stories and examples of growing stewardship programs and capital campaigns are provided along with practical hands on tools to help groups plan develop and implement stewardship plans The New Fundraisers Beth Breeze, 2017-10-30 Charitable fundraising has become ever more urgent in a time of extensive public spending cuts However while the identity and motivation of those who donate comes under increasingly close scrutiny little is known about the motivation and characteristics of the askers despite almost every donation being solicited or prompted in some way This is the first empirically grounded and theorised account of the identity characteristics and motivation of fundraisers in the UK Based on original data collected during a 3 year study of over 1 200 fundraisers the book argues that it is not possible to understand charitable giving without accounting for the role of fundraising
