Archaeology, Language, and the African Past R. Blench, 2006 Scholarly work that attempts to match linguistic and archaeological evidence in precolonial Africa The Evolution of Modern Humans in Africa Pamela R. Willoughby, 2007 Pamela Willoughby provides a wide ranging synthesis of current knowledge about the evolution of fully modern humans in Africa during the Middle Palaeolithic Middle Stone Age According to most scholars our modern ancestors first emerged in Africa and then spread throughout the habitable world Willoughby brings evidence from mitochondrial DNA ancient fossils and archaeological remains including her own research in Tanzania to bear on questions regarding the place of human species in nature the specific origins of Homo Sapiens and the dispersal of these modern humans throughout Africa and around the globe She confronts straightforwardly the problems of dating the earliest modern humans and she discusses the various alternative models of modern human origins which will be debated for years to come The Evolution of Modern Humans in Africa is a compelling thought provoking book for both students and scholars

The Languages and Linguistics of Africa Tom Güldemann, 2018-09-10 This innovative handbook takes a fresh look at the currently underestimated linguistic diversity of Africa the continent with the largest number of languages in the world It covers the major domains of linguistics offering both a representative picture of Africa s linguistic landscape as well as new and at times unconventional perspectives The focus is not so much on exhaustiveness as on the fruitful relationship between African and general linguistics and the contributions the two domains can make to each other This volume is thus intended for readers with a specific interest in African languages and also for students and scholars within the greater discipline of linguistics
