A Sense Of Place A Sense Of Time:

A Sense of Place Steven Kolpan, 2010 In A Sense of Place renowned wine expert and writer Steven Kolpan tells the story of how Francis Ford Coppola brought California's most distinguished and historic vineyard back to life. Gustave Niebaum's Inglenook Estate started in 1879 was one of the Napa Valley's first established vineyards and the birthplace of its premium wine industry. Generations after Niebaum's death the vineyard was sold to Heublein the wine and spirits monolith who broke up the land and changed the Inglenook brand from a premium connoisseur wine to a mass market jug wine. In 1975 Francis Coppola bought the Niebaum residence and the surrounding estate. Along with the original estate's reputation he also brought back some of its original workers including Rafael Rodriguez who in his late seventies now serves as the vineyard manager and historian. Coppola overcame naysayers, red tape and financial turmoil to reestablish the winery as a defender of quality producing wine under four different labels including the revered wine Rubicon. In 1995 Coppola purchased the Inglenook Chateau and its adjacent vineyards fulfilling his dream of reuniting the original Napa Valley estate. Kolpan's luscious flavorful narrative is worth enjoying now and keeping for later.

A Sense of Place Annie Davy, 2019-02-07 Tried and tested accessible strategies that support the wellbeing and learning journey of children through mindfulness with a focus on learning outdoors and connecting with the world. Being outside and connecting with nature is key to young children's learning and wellbeing especially in a busy fast changing and digitalised world. Outdoors children can more easily connect to their bodies and learn about themselves and others and how to be in the world. They use their senses to explore, understand and become mindful of the earth and the people around them. But how can Early Years practitioners best support young children as they engage with nature while also passing on the values about the future of the planet? A Sense of Place is an easily accessible guide that will make outdoor learning more interesting and fun while also supporting children's development of resilience and resourcefulness so that they can survive and thrive in the world as they grow.

Experience, Evidence, and Sense Anna Wierzbicka, 2010-06-24 This book is based on two ideas: first that any language, English no less than any other, represents a universe of meaning shaped by the history and experience of the men and women who have created it; and second that in any language certain culture-specific words act as linchpins for whole networks of meanings and that penetrating the meanings of those key words can therefore open our eyes to an entire cultural universe. In this book Anna Wierzbicka demonstrates that three uniquely English words—evidence, experience, and sense—are exactly such linchpins. Using a rigorous plain language approach to meaning analysis, she unpacks the dense cultural meanings of these key words, disentangles their multiple meanings, and traces their origins back to the tradition of British empiricism. In so doing, she reveals much about cultural attitudes embedded not only in British and American English but also English as a global language. An interdisciplinary work, Experience, Evidence, and Sense will be of interest to both scholars and students in linguistics and English as well as historians of ideas, sociologists, anthropologists, literary scholars, and scholars of
