A Theory Of Literary Production Routledge Classics:

Theory of Literary Production Pierre Macherey, 2006 Who is more important the reader or the writer This text originally published in French in 1966 dared to challenge perceived wisdom Part of the birth of a whole new branch of post structuralist theory Macherey s work argues persuasively for a totally new way of reading as the focus is on the reader A Theory of Literary Production Pierre Macherey, 2012-12-06 The reissue of this work as a Routledge Classic brings some radical ideas to a new audience and argues persuasively for a totally new way of reading As such it is an essential work for anyone interested in the development of literary theory A Theory of Literary Production Pierre Macherey, 2015-10-08 Who is more important the reader or the writer Originally published in French in 1966 Pierre Macherey s first and most famous work A Theory of Literary Production dared to challenge perceived wisdom and quickly established him as a pivotal figure in literary theory The reissue of this work as a Routledge Classic brings some radical ideas to Literary Geographies and the Work of David Ireland Brett Heino, 2025-10-01 This book explores the spatiality of post World War II Australian society through the vehicle of David Ireland s literature Employing concepts from radical geography and structural Marxist literary theory it posits the existence of a spatial unconscious of literary texts whereby they encode the spatiality of the society into which they are born By mining the spatial unconscious of Ireland s texts we can create a complex unique and highly fertile atlas of the spaces and places of Australia In particular Ireland s works ideologically handle the contradictory relationship between capitalism s regime of abstract space rooted in the production process and the state and the meaningful social places that can be forged out of the struggle of social forces including workers lumpenproletarians women and indigenous peoples In the midst of the contemporary spatial crisis this study of Ireland is a form of mapping creating an atlas by which we might plot our past and present and orient ourselves to the future Space, Place and Capitalism Brett Heino, 2021-07-30 This book is an original contribution to literary geography and commentaries on the work of David Ireland It plots the relationship between the spaces and places of 1970s Australian capitalism as it evolves through Ireland s 1971 Miles Franklin prize winning novel The Unknown Industrial Prisoner In particular the book theorises the relationship between space and place in literature through two highly innovative arguments a focus on the spatial unconscious as a means to assess and track the spatiality of capitalism in the novel form and the articulation of a regime of space through the perceived conceived and lived constitution of space Drawing together concepts from radical geography and structural Marxist literary theory it explores the dominance of the regime of abstract space in the Australian context The text also examines the nature and possibilities of place based strategies of resistance and concludes by suggesting opportunities for future research and plotting the ways in which The Unknown Industrial Prisoner continues to speak to contemporary Australia Ecocinema Theory and Practice Stephen Rust, Salma Monani, Sean Cubitt, 2013 This is an anthology that offers a comprehensive introduction to the rapidly growing field of eco film criticism a branch of critical scholarship that investigates cinema's intersections with environmental understandings

Care and Crisis in Chinua Achebe's Novels Amechi Nicholas Akwanya, 2024-04-16 This book is a new study of Chinua Achebe's novels in which they are read as works of literary art as literary works are studied and discussed within the discipline of literary studies and criticism A central concept care which is a humane value is found to run in the texts and is the crux of the test that the major characters are subjected to What challenges them as things to be taken care of through concern may be a human being in a dire circumstance as with Ikemefuna Things Fall Apart the human group itself exposed to famine in what should be harvest time Arrow of God or the state which needs to be brought to its proper being as Heidegger would say No Longer at Ease and A Man of the People or human suffering calling to be relieved Anthills of the Savannah The novels are all in the tragic mode because intervention is under some kind of interdiction

Specters of Marx Jacques Derrida, 2012-10-12 Prodigious influential Jacques Derrida gave rise to a comprehensive rethinking of the basic concepts and categories of Western philosophy in the latter part of the twentieth century with writings central to our understanding of language meaning identity ethics and values In 1993 a conference was organized around the question Whither Marxism and Derrida was invited to open the proceedings His plenary address Specters of Marx delivered in two parts forms the basis of this book Hotly debated when it was first published a rapidly changing world and world politics have scarcely dented the relevance of this book

Schizostructuralism Daniel Bristow, 2021-06-07 Schizostructuralism draws together insights from psychoanalytic structuralist and Marxist theory and the divisions and antagonisms that both underpin and distinguish them to form a new psychoanalytic system Working through the key concepts and methods in these fields Daniel Bristow describes the processes of unification and separation inherent in structure extends concepts within the field of psychoanalytic topology and its study of surface and interrogates types and phasings of time that operate psychosocially testing workings of these against analyses of class division and struggle Returning to and working through key concepts and methods in the fields of structuralism topology temporality and Marxist political theory Schizostructuralism looks again at such major figures as Freud Reich Lacan Laing and Deleuze and Guattari invoking their socially oriented theories and practices and sets out possibilities for recalibrating critical and clinical approaches to be more politically radical and inclusive Bristow draws on an array of schematic diagrams depicting and formulating the clinical categories of neurosis perversion and psychosis Schizostructuralism will be of interest to academics and students of psychoanalytic studies Lacanian studies and philosophy It will also inform psychoanalysts in practice and in training

The Politics of Viewing in Xenophon's Historical Narratives

Rosie Harman, 2023-01-12 This book considers cultural identity and power relations in early fourth century BCE Greece through a reading of Xenophon's historical narratives the Hellenica Anabasis and Cyropaedia These texts depict conflicts between Greek states conflicts between Greeks and non Greeks and relations between the elite individual and society In all three texts politically significant moments are imagined in visual terms We witness spectacles of Spartan military victory vistas of Asian landscape or displays of Persian imperial pomp and historical protagonists are presented as spectators viewing and responding to events Through this visual form of narration the reader is encouraged imaginatively to place themselves in the position of the historical protagonists In viewing events from different perspectives and therefore occupying multiple often conflicting political positions the reader not only experiences the problems faced by historical actors but becomes engaged in the political conflicts acted out in the narratives The reader is prompted to take pleasure in the sight of Panhellenic achievement but also to witness the divisions and conflicts between Greeks on class and ethnic lines Similarly the reader is invited to identify with spectacular Greek and non Greek figures of power as emblems of Greek imperial potential but also to see through the eyes of those communities subjugated at their hands The depiction of spectacles and spectators draws the reader into an active participation in the ideological contradictions of their time in a period when Panhellenic aspiration co existed with hegemonic competition between Greek states and when Greeks could be both beneficiaries and victims of imperialism
