A Vowellers Bestiary:

A Voweller's Bestiary JonArno Lawson, 2008-05 Presents an alphabetical collection of poetry that explores different animals and their humorous behavior The Cambridge History of American Poetry Alfred Bendixen, Stephen Burt, 2014-10-27 The Cambridge History of American Poetry offers a comprehensive exploration of the development of American poetic traditions from their beginnings until the end of the twentieth century Bringing together the insights of fifty distinguished scholars this literary history emphasizes the complex roles that poetry has played in American cultural and intellectual life detailing the variety of ways in which both public and private forms of poetry have met the needs of different communities at different times The Cambridge History of American Poetry recognizes the existence of multiple traditions and a dramatically fluid canon providing current perspectives on both major authors and a number of representative figures whose work embodies the diversity of America's democratic traditions Cultures and Traditions of Wordplay and Wordplay Research Esme Winter-Froemel, Verena Thaler, 2018-10-22 This volume focuses on realisations of wordplay in different cultures and social and historical contexts and brings together various research traditions of approaching wordplay Together with the volume DWP 7 it assembles selected papers presented at the interdisciplinary conference The Dynamics of Wordplay La dynamique du jeu de mots Trier 2016 and stresses the inherent dynamicity of wordplay and wordplay research Prizing Children's Literature Kenneth Kidd, Joseph Thomas Jr., 2016-11-10 Children's book awards have mushroomed since the early twentieth century and especially since the 1960s when literary prizing became a favored strategy for both commercial promotion and canon making There are over 300 awards for English language titles alone but despite the profound impact of children's book awards scholars have paid relatively little attention to them This book is the first scholarly volume devoted to the analysis of Anglophone children's book awards in historical and cultural context With attention to both political and aesthetic concerns the book offers original and diverse scholarship on prizing practices and their consequences in Australia Canada and especially the United States Contributors offer both case studies of particular awards and analysis of broader trends in literary evaluation and elevation drawing on theoretical work on canonization and cultural capital Sections interrogate the complex and often unconscious ideological work of prizing the ongoing tension between formalist awards and so called identity based awards all the more urgent in light of the We Need Diverse Books campaign the ever morphing forms and parameters of prizing and scholarly practices of prizing Among the many awards discussed are the Pura Belpr Medal the Inky Awards the Canada Governor General Literary Award the Printz Award the Best Animated Feature Oscar the Phoenix Award and the John Newbery Medal giving due attention to prizes for fiction as well as for non fiction poetry and film This volume will interest scholars in literary and cultural studies social history book history sociology education library and information science and anyone concerned with children's literature The Hobo's Crowbar JonArno Lawson, 2016-09-30 The latest wacky and wonderful collection of children's poetry Governor General's Award winner JonArno Lawson's The Hobo

s Crowbar presents a world of word botchers and bird watchers of vile versifiers and vigilante interventionists of nobodies and somebodies big guys and small fries Lawson s world is one of logic and language of wit and words of contradictions and conundrums but it is also a world in which looking and learning go hand in hand with laughter never far behind The book is as fun to see as it is to say and vibrant woodcuts by artist Alec Dempster are a perfect accompaniment to Lawson s poems Together they help to expose the highs and lows of life and celebrate goofiness absurdity and the profound truth of human experience

The Bloomsbury Introduction to Children's and Young Adult Literature Karen Coats,2017-11-16 From Maria Edgeworth Dr Seuss and Lewis Carroll to Sherman Alexie Sharon Flake and Gene Luen Yang this is a comprehensive introduction to studying the infinitely varied worlds of literature for children and young adults Exploring a diverse range of writing The Bloomsbury Introduction to Children s and Young Adult Literature includes Chapters covering key genres and forms from fiction nonfiction and poetry to picture books graphic novels and fairy tales A history of changing ideas of childhood and adolescence Coverage of psychological educational and literary theoretical approaches Practical guidance on researching reading and writing about children s and young adult literature Explorations of children s and young adult film TV and new media In addition Extending Your Study sections at the end of each chapter provide advice on further reading writing discussion and online resources as well as case study responses from writers and teachers in the field Accessibly written for both students new to the subject and experienced teachers this is the most comprehensive single volume introduction to the study of writing for young people
