Architecture And Film Publications:

Film, Architecture and Spatial Imagination Renée Tobe, 2016-08-25 Films use architecture as visual shorthand to tell viewers everything they need to know about the characters in a short amount of time Illustrated by a diverse range of films from different eras and cultures this book investigates the reciprocity between film and architecture Using a phenomenological approach it describes how we the viewers can learn how to read architecture and design in film in order to see the many inherent messages Architecture's representational capacity contributes to the plausibility or reality possible in film The book provides an ontological understanding that clarifies and stabilizes the reciprocity of the actual world and a filmic world of illusion and human imagination thereby shedding light on both film and architecture Atlas of Emotion Giuliana Bruno, 2002 Maps a cultural history of spatio visual art emphasizing that sight and site but also motion and emotion are irrevocably connected Design Culture Now Donald Albrecht, Ellen Lupton, Steven Holt, 2000-03 Written and assembled by three leading critics and curators Donald Albrecht Ellen Lupton and Steven Skov Holt the book explores the design artifacts and practices that will define the twenty first century BOOK JACKET Architecture and Film Mark Lamster, 2000 An examination of the ways in which architecture and architects are treated on screen and how these depictions filter and shape the ways we understand the built environment There are essays from contributors from a range of disciplines and interviews of those working behind the scenes Studios Before the System Brian R. Jacobson, 2015-09-01 By 1915 Hollywood had become the epicenter of American filmmaking with studio dream factories structuring its vast production Filmmakers designed Hollywood studios with a distinct artistic and industrial mission in mind which in turn influenced the form content and business of the films that were made and the impressions of the people who viewed them The first book to retell the history of film studio architecture Studios Before the System expands the social and cultural footprint of cinema's virtual worlds and their contribution to wider developments in global technology and urban modernism Focusing on six significant early film corporations in the United States and France the Edison Manufacturing Company American Mutoscope and Biograph American Vitagraph Georges Méliès Star Films Gaumont and Path Frères as well as smaller producers and film companies Studios Before the System describes how filmmakers first envisioned the space they needed and then sourced modern materials to create novel film worlds Artificially reproducing the natural environment film studios helped usher in the world's Second Industrial Revolution and what Lewis Mumford would later call the specific art of the machine From housing workshops for set prop and costume design to dressing rooms and writing departments studio architecture was always present though rarely visible to the average spectator in the twentieth century providing the scaffolding under which culture film aesthetics and our relation to lived space took shape Atlas of Emotion Giuliana Bruno, 2018-07-10 An award winning cultural history of how we experience the world through art film and architecture Atlas of Emotion is a highly original endeavor to map the cultural terrain of spatio visual arts In an evocative blend of words and pictures Giuliana Bruno emphasizes the connections between sight and site and motion and emotion In so doing she touches on the art of Gerhard Richter and Louise Bourgeois the filmmaking of Peter Greenaway and Michelangelo Antonioni media archaeology and the origins of the museum and her own journeys to her native Naples Visually luscious and daring in conception Bruno's book opens new vistas and understandings at every turn Architecture and Science-fiction Film David Terrance Fortin, 2011 The enduring paradoxes of the home are often brought to light in science fiction SF writing and film However while crossovers between architecture and SF have proliferated the home is often overshadowed by the spectacle of otherness By examining the home from the estranging perspective of SF and in particular the films based on Phillip K Dick's books this work offers a unique critical analysis with particular relevance for contemporary architecture The Social Architecture of French Cinema, 1929-1939 Margaret C. Flinn, 2014 This book provides a vital new reading of documentary and realist fiction film of the French 1930s that focuses on how these genres interlock their representations of urban spaces and places Cinematic Starchitecture Merrill Schleier, Paul Newland, 2025-11-03 Cinematic Starchitecture explores how examples of famous architecture have circulated throughout cinema history across diverse genres Building on the term starchitecture coined in 1997 for dramatic monumental structures designed to gain international attention and economic advantage the authors demonstrate that a crucial part of an architectural structure's iconic star status emerges through its engagement with and codification by the media and with cinema in particular This book explores how iconic architectural structures have performed a myriad of roles and functions that exceed buildings everyday uses or identities as aesthetic objects location markers or spatial settings to show that countless films globally have featured famous buildings as inimitable components of narrative exposition character development and or identity construction This volume will appeal to students scholars and researchers of film studies media studies and architecture and architectural history as well as those in the areas of media and cultural studies history popular culture and urban geography The Architecture of the Screen Graham Cairns, 2013 With the birth of film came the birth of a revolutionary visual language This new unique vocabulary the cut the fade the dissolve the pan and the new idea of movement gave not only artists but also architects a completely new way to think about and describe the visual The Architecture of the Screen examines the relationship between the visual language of film and the onscreen perception of space and architectural design revealing how film's visual vocabulary influenced architecture in the twentieth century and continues to influence it today Graham Cairns draws on film reviews architectural plans and theoretical texts to illustrate the unusual and fascinating relationship between the worlds of filmmaking and architecture Provided by publisher
