Recharge fully after each use. To maximize the full performance of a new battery's anticorrosion ability, it is important to recharge the battery fully after each use. The battery can be recharged by connecting it to a fully charged battery or by using a battery charger. Unplugging the charger from the electrical plug and the vehicle battery must be in use. Do not leave a fully charged battery connected to a charger, since overcharging may shorten its lifetime. If left connected to a charger for a long time, the battery may become damaged. If the battery is not recharged fully after each use, the anticorrosion ability of the treatment would be lower compared for a long time. Please charge fully and turn off the treatment after each use. If the battery is not recharged fully after each use, the anticorrosion ability of the treatment would be lower compared for a long time. Please charge fully and turn off the treat-
