Blackrock Play Script:

Nick Enright Anne Pender, Susan Lever, 2008 Nick Enright 1950 2003 was one of Australia's most significant and successful playwrights. As a writer, director, actor, and teacher, he influenced theatre in Australia for thirty years. Enright wrote more than fifty plays for the stage, film, television, and radio, translated and adapted more, and taught acting to students in varied settings both in Australia and the United States. His writing repertoire included comedy, social realism, farce, fantasy, and the musical. In addition to his prodigious contribution to all of these genres, he was a passionate advocate for the actor and the theatre in contemporary society. In this volume, Anne Pender and Susan Lever present a set of essays and recollections about Nick Enright's work for students, teachers, and scholars. The book offers a comprehensive study of Enright's writing for theatre, film, and television. Scholars, acting teachers, and theatre directors have contributed to this work, each illuminating an aspect of Enright's remarkable career. The discussions cover interpretations of Enright's scripts and productions, detailed analysis of his directing style, substantial background, and analysis of his writing for musicals, as well as accounts of his specific approach to acting and to adaptation across genres. The essays and recollections included in this book will inspire theatre practitioners as well as scholars. Most importantly, this book will inform and enlighten students and teachers both at high school and university about an exceptional career in the theatre. Blackrock Nicholas Enright, 1997. The film Blackrock tells the story of the suburb of an Australian industrial coastal city where surfing is a way of life, especially for 17-year-old Jared. This book contains the full screenplay, stills from the film, and introductions from the film's writer and director. Unsettling Space Joanne Tompkins, 2006-11-08. This study investigates contestations over spatiality in one culturally composite nation, Australia, where contemporary theatre stages competing cultural and political agendas through space and place. Covering a wide range of plays, it will have wide appeal for issues of space, spatiality, and territory in all forms of theatre in all nations. One Door Shuts Alan Coleman, 2012-02-17. After an incredible early life, Alan Coleman found himself working as an original director on Crossroads, which was the UK's first ever daily soap opera. He would then produce the much-loved children's series Escape into Night, The Jensen Code, and The Kids From 47A. After being headhunted by Reg Grundy, he would move to Australia to help establish the Grundy Organisation's Drama Department. Alan was the driving force behind The Young Doctors and worked on other Grundy hits, including Prisoner, Cell Block H, Class of '74, and Case for the Defence. Alan has executive produced Neighbours, Shortland Street in New Zealand, Unter Uns in Germany, and Goede Tijden, Slechte Tijden in The Netherlands. His directing credits include Home and Away, Above the Law, Going Home, and Family Affairs in the UK. One Door Shuts lifts the lid on the behind-the-scenes action on the various shows which Alan has been involved with, and he shares his unique knowledge of the skills and disciplines required in order to work in this specialised art form. Take Five Australian Writing and the City Association for the Study of Australian Literature.
