Shapiro, 2021-08-31 A revised enlarged and updated edition of this authoritative and entertaining reference book named the 2 essential home library reference book by the Wall Street Journal Shapiro does original research earning this volume a place on the quotation shelf next to Bartlett's and Oxford's William Safire New York Times Magazine on the original edition The most accurate thorough and up to date quotation book ever compiled Bryan A Garner Los Angeles Review of Books Updated to include more than a thousand new quotations this reader friendly volume contains over twelve thousand famous quotations arranged alphabetically by author and sourced from literature history popular culture sports digital culture science politics law the social sciences and all other aspects of human activity Contemporaries added to this edition include Beyoncé Sandra Cisneros James Comey Drake Louise Gléck LeBron James Brett Kavanaugh Lady Gaga Lin Manuel Miranda Barack Obama John Oliver Nancy Pelosi Vladimir Putin Bernie Sanders Donald Trump and David Foster Wallace The volume also reflects path breaking recent research resulting in the updating of quotations from the first edition with more accurate wording or attribution It has also incorporated noncontemporary quotations that have become relevant to the present day In addition The New Yale Book of Quotations reveals the striking fact that women originated many familiar quotations yet their roles have been forgotten and their verbal inventions have often been credited to prominent men instead This book's quotations annotations extensive cross references and large keyword index will satisfy both the reader who seeks specific information and the curious browser who appreciates an amble through entertaining pages

Humans, Animals, and U.S. Society in the Long Nineteenth Century: A Documentary History Dominik Ohrem, 2025-11-18 Volume III hones in on the relations between humans and domesticated animals in U.S. society illuminating how these relations were integral to key developments of the long nineteenth century A first section explores the role of domesticated animals in what for most of the nineteenth century remained a predominantly agrarian world albeit one undergoing significant change focussing on the labour and products that could be extracted from animal bodies the education of working animals contemporary attempts at improving animal breeds to increase agricultural productivity and market value the rise of veterinary medicine and other topics The second section demonstrates that the transportation revolution of the antebellum decades notwithstanding animals remained essential for moving around goods and people in both rural areas and the growing U.S. cityscapes where horses powered everything from carriages to streetcars as well as in other nineteenth century contexts that relied on equine bovine and sometimes canine traction A third and final section is centred on domesticated animals in entertainment and competitive settings ranging from the prestigious if embattled sport of Thoroughbred horse racing to pigeon fancying and the brutal spectacles of dog and cockfighting which quickly became the target of a spirited post Civil War anticruelty movement
