Bridges Constantine Ahlem Mosteghanemi:

The Kaleidoscope of Gendered Memory in Ahlam Mosteghanemi's Novels Nuha Baaqeel, 2019-07-12 Through its unique kaleidoscopic lens this book analyzes the work of Algeria's first postcolonial woman writer to publish a novel in Arabic Ahlam Mosteghanemi Her novels Memory in the Flesh and Chaos of the Senses return to the trauma of the Algerian War of Independence to address the lingering anxieties of national belonging and memory in postcolonial Algeria at a time when the nation is caught between two forces entrenched bureaucratic political elites and populist Islamists who imagine a return to a pre modern utopian past This book argues that Mosteghanemi's polyphonic narratives reveal that national narratives are always multiple unity is not one all encompassing narrative but instead an ever evolving Bakhtinian dialogism accommodating multiple perspectives memories and stories The study interprets Mosteghanemi's metaphor of the bridge as a powerful device for exploring tensions between reality and imagination exile and belonging and traditional concepts of gender in ways that reimagine nationhood and gesture towards a new collective future

The Bridges of Constantine Ahlem Mosteghanemi, 2013-12-05 Khaled a former revolutionary in the Algerian war of liberation has been in self exile in Paris for two decades disgusted by the corruption that now riddles the country he once fought for Now a celebrated painter Khaled is consumed with passion for Hayat the daughter of his old revolutionary commander who unexpectedly reenters Khaled's life Hayat had been just a child when he last saw her but she has now become a seductive young novelist The first novel in an award winning bestselling trilogy that spans Algeria's tumultuous recent history The Bridges of Constantine is a lyrical and heartrending love story

Transcolonial Maghreb Olivia C. Harrison, 2015-11-18 Transcolonial Maghreb offers the first thorough analysis of the ways in which Moroccan Algerian and Tunisian writers have engaged with the Palestinian question and the Palestinian Israeli conflict for the past fifty years Arguing that Palestine has become the figure par excellence of the colonial in the purportedly postcolonial present the book reframes the field of Maghrebi studies to account for transversal political and aesthetic exchanges across North Africa and the Middle East Olivia C Harrison examines and contextualizes writings by the likes of Abdellatif La bi Kateb Yacine Ahlam Mosteghanemi Albert Memmi Abdelkebir Khatibi Jacques Derrida and Edmond El Maleh covering a wide range of materials that are for the most part unavailable in English translation popular theater literary magazines television series feminist texts novels essays unpublished manuscripts letters and pamphlets written in the three main languages of the Maghreb Arabic French and Berber The result has wide implications for the study of transcolonial relations across the Global South

The Bridges of Constantine Ahlem Mosteghanemi, 2014-01-17 Our meagre literature has known no greater story nor witnessed a more beautiful ruin Self exiled in Paris after losing an arm in the Algerian war of liberation and becoming disillusioned with the corruption of his newly independent country the narrator Khaled has taken up painting as a form of therapy Many years later at an exhibition of his work in Paris he is visited by Hayat the daughter of a close friend and legendary fighter who had given his life for the revolt

Khaled who had known Hayat as a child now falls for the woman she has become and for her chosen art as a novelist Hayat who he sees as the manifestation of his home city of Constantine makes him forget his French girlfriend and for the first time in years start to confront his feelings about Algeria He is rivaled in his affections however by a Palestinian poet and by a senior ranking government official who Hayat eventually decides to marry The events of this award winning novel centre around Algeria's struggle against foreign domination and the turmoil that followed its independence from France in the 1960s The first in a series of three books that span more than five decades of Algerian history Memory in the Flesh is a lyrical and nostalgic memoir of love and loss

The Bridges of Constantine Ahlem Mosteghanemi, 2014-02-25 An artist and former revolutionary in Algeria lives in Paris out of frustration with the corruption in his own country until the daughter of his former commander unexpectedly enters his life and returns his thoughts to Algeria

Memory in The Flesh Ahlam Mosteghanemi, 2003 This prize winning novel the first to be written by an Algerian woman in Arabic is set against Algeria's struggle against foreign domination as well as its post independence struggle with itself and the fate of revolutionary ideals in a post revolutionary society The story spanning more than four decades of Algerian history from the 1940s to the 1980s revolves around a love affair between Khaled the middle aged militant who turns to painting after losing his left arm in the struggle and Hayat the fiction writer and young daughter of his friend the freedom fighter Si Taher all brilliantly told through Khaled's voice It was features such as this convincing embodiment of a male voice alongside narrative techniques in which the author subtly joins the achievements of world literature with that of local storytelling and traditional modes of narration that particularly impressed the judges who awarded this novel the Naguib Mahfouz Medal for Literature

Chaos of the Senses Ahlam Mosteghanemi, 2007 Ahlam Mosteghanemi's second novel picks up where Memory in the Flesh left off with the story of love set in the battered and bruised Algeria of the 1990s Mosteghanemi takes her readers through the streets of suspicion and suspense and the ups and downs of a forbidden love affair through a story within a story as a writer stuck in a loveless marriage to an important military man inadvertently writes what eventually comes true She begins after a period of not writing by penning the narrative of a mysterious man who courts the object of his desire through deceptive words then she helplessly follows the path of her fictitious character only to find that the mystery man exists and it is he who has led her to his door and into his life One twist leads to the next as the question remains of which man the writer was destined to meet and fall in love with the mysterious artist or the doomed journalist This lyrical adventure teases the reader with facts for fiction and fiction for facts The backdrop of political chaos creates a sense of foreboding and fear for two powerless lovers But where is reality and where is fantasy

A Century of Encounters Tanja Stampfl, 2019-02-08 A Century of Encounters analyzes Arab American and European literary depictions of self and other as they interact with each other in Arab North Africa throughout the twentieth century and introduces the trope of the encounter as a lens through which to read contemporary world literature comparatively A focus on the transnational encounter allows for the in depth study of constructions of gender race and national identities both for the self and the other in order to answer the seemingly simple questions What makes up different encounters in the twentieth century and how can we facilitate a productive and positive encounter between these groups This book illustrates connections between literary texts that have hitherto been overlooked and establishes an intertextual genealogy of transcultural encounters throughout the twentieth century that coalesce around the themes of desire family and travel In its literary analysis A Century of Encounters aims to facilitate a better
