British cinema Carmichael starred alongside Terry Thomas and Peter Sellers in the Boulting brothers classic satirical comedies I'm Alright, Jack Private's Progress and School for Scoundrels. He summed up on screen and in life the kind of Englishman who was beginning to emerge after the war: educated, not necessarily upper class, upwardly mobile, and a study in good manners and a sense of fair play, and thus played the straight man foil to the distracted ravings of his wilder co-stars. Subsequently he became Bertie Wooster in a highly successful television series based on P. G. Wodehouse's Jeeves stories. He also made the part of Lord Peter Wimsey his own in another long running adaptation of Dorothy L. Sayers' famous detective novels and was still acting on television well into his eighties alongside Susan Hampshire in ITV's drama series The Royal.
