

The background of the entire image is a traditional marbled paper pattern, often called a 'stone' or 'shell' pattern. It features intricate, swirling, and veined designs in a rich palette of earthy colors, including deep browns, vibrant reds, and muted greens. The pattern is dense and organic, resembling natural stone or biological cells. In the center of this marbled background is a rectangular text box with a thin, dark red border. The box has a light cream or off-white background. Inside this box, the title and author information are printed in a dark red, serif typeface. The text is centered and arranged in three lines for the title, followed by a thin horizontal line, and then the publisher's name on a single line.
