

Busser Training — Trainer's Notes

Welcome to Bus Station Training. The following notes are designed for the person responsible for facilitating the bus station training within the restaurant.

The Trainer's Notes follow along with each section of Busser Training Manual with suggested talking points and recommended hands-on activities.

In Preparation

- Read through the Trainer's Notes. Make comments where you want to add specific examples or references.
- On the day prior to the scheduled training shift, have the trainee read the corresponding sections of the Busser Training Manual that you would like to cover during that day's training.
- On the day of training, make sure that you have all the supplies needed for the station training. Including these training tools:
 - These Trainer's Notes
 - Busser Training Manual
 - Busser Final Test & Answers
 - Busser Certification Form

Training Process

The best way for your trainee to learn how to be a Busser will be to practice hands-on.

- In this training your trainee will start by reading a brief description of a topic pertaining to their job, and then you will explain and demonstrate how to conduct the procedures presented.
- Next, you will have the trainee conduct a hands-on activity or practice live on-the-job with your assistance until they are comfortable with the task.
- Once all topics have been presented and practiced there will be a short knowledge test for your trainee to complete.
- Lastly, to certify that your trainee is ready to be put on the floor as a bus person you will conduct an on-the-job evaluation of the trainee in action. You will fill out the Busser Certification Form and present it to the trainee at the completion of their training. A copy of the certification form should be kept on file in the restaurant.
