Reconceptualising Strict Liability for the Tort of Another Christine Beuermann, 2019-11-28 This book adopts a novel approach to resolving the present difficulties experienced by the courts in imposing strict liability for the tort of another It looks beyond the traditional classifications of vicarious liability and liability for breach of a non delegable duty of care and for the first time seeks to explain all instances of strict liability for the tort of another in terms of the various relationships in which the courts impose such liability The book shows that despite appearances there is a unifying feature to the various relationships in which the courts currently impose strict liability for the tort of another That feature is authority Whenever the courts impose strict liability for the tort of another the defendant is either vested with authority over the person who committed a tort against the claimant or has vested or conferred a form of authority upon that person in respect of the claimant This book uses this feature of authority to construct a new expositive framework within which strict liability for the tort of another can be understood

Professional Liability and Property Transactions Sharon Christensen, W. D. Duncan, 2004 This book examines in detail the principles underpinning professional liability both at common law tort and contract and by reason of statute Trade Practices Act and Fair Trading Acts in the context of property professionals It includes comprehensive coverage of the Civil Liability Acts The early chapters deal with the sources of professional liability They include an analysis of remedies for breach of professional obligations generally and of procedural issues such as limitation of actions expert evidence apportionment and contributory negligence in the setting of professional liability The heart of the book is original and accessible material on the measure of damages as it relates to the liability of the various professionals who become involved in property transactions There are further chapters on the liability of lenders and local authorities as organisations commonly involved It is an essential reference for any barrister solicitor or other professional directly or indirectly involved in litigation in this area as well as property lawyers With a Foreword by The Hon Justice Ian Callinan For more detailed information about the book s purpose and structure please read the extract from the Preface below
