Territories of Poverty Ananya Roy, Emma Shaw Crane, 2015-11-15 Territories of Poverty challenges the conventional North South geographies through which poverty scholarship is organized Staging theoretical interventions that traverse social histories of the American welfare state and critical ethnographies of international development regimes these essays confront how poverty is constituted as a problem In the process the book analyzes bureaucracies of poverty poor people s movements and global networks of poverty expertise as well as more intimate modes of poverty action such as volunteerism From post Katrina New Orleans to Korean church missions in Africa this book is fundamentally concerned with how poverty is territorialized In contrast to studies concerned with locations of poverty Territories of Poverty engages with spatial technologies of power be they community development and counterinsurgency during the American 1960s or the unceasing anticipation of war in Beirut Within this territorial matrix contributors uncover dissent rupture and mobilization This book helps us understand the regulation of poverty whether by globally circulating models of fast policy or vast webs of mobile money or philanthrocapitalist foundations as multiple terrains of struggle for justice and social transformation

Routledge Handbook of South-South Relations Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh, Patricia Daley, 2018-12-07 South South cooperation is becoming ever more important to states policy makers and academics Many Northern states international agencies and NGOs are promoting South South partnerships as a means of sharing the burden in funding and undertaking development assistance and protection activities often in response to increased political and financial pressures on their own aid budgets However the mainstreaming of Southern led initiatives by UN agencies and Northern states is paradoxical in many ways especially because the development of a South South cooperation paradigm was originally conceptualised as a necessary way to overcome the exploitative nature of North South relations in the era of decolonisation This handbook critically explores diverse ways of defining the South and of conceptualising and engaging with South South relations Through 30 state of the art reviews of key academic and policy debates the handbook evaluates past present and future opportunities and challenges of South South cooperation and lays out research agendas for the next 5 10 years The book covers key models of cooperation including internationalism Pan Arabism and Pan Africanism diverse modes of South South connection exchange and support including South South aid transnational activism and migration and responses to displacement violence and conflict including Southern led humanitarianism peace building and conflict resolution In so doing the handbook reflects on decolonial postcolonial and anticolonial theories and methodologies exploring urgent questions regarding the nature and implications of conducting research in and about the global South and of applying a Southern lens to a wide range of encounters processes and dynamics across the global South and global North alike This handbook will be of great interest to scholars and post graduate students in anthropology area studies cultural studies development studies history geography international relations politics postcolonial studies and sociology Yearbook of International
