Architecture As Philosophy The Works Of Imre Makovecz:

Architecture as Philosophy, 2005 At the start of this book Imre Makovecz gently criticises the commentators who first brought his work to the West He is grateful to them of course but he claims they only half understood simplifying and misinterpreting They presented him as a heroic rebel against the communist system rather than seeing his battle against a larger enemy that we all still face this he calls impersonal intelligence When he remarks that architecture is not regarded as an art in Hungary but as a service and that it has no place in the Ministry of Culture we find it all too familiar It is perhaps understandable that someone so concerned with cultural memory especially long repressed folk memories should arise in much oppressed Hungary which was fought over for millennia even before the advent of the Soviet Empire but the same cultural amnesia is occurring throughout the world exhibited in increasing rootlessness and placelessness Perhaps the most misleading reading of all has been Makovecz the wild man or primitive but this book shows him to be a highly articulate architectural philosopher and intellectual conversant from the start with a wide range of international sources There is much more to the work than the expressive image we first encounter It warmly embraces place and community and quite aside from its ecological dimension there is a concern with the building process and the participation of craftsmen that would have warmed William Morris heart Most bold and most intriguing is Makovecz's claim to be tapping into ancient and universal folk memories that are lodged in hand made patterns gestures and even dance Over the last century we have had to revise our sense of civilisation for cities and writing are but five thousand years old yet our forebears tens of thousand years ago could scarcely have been less intelligent and communicative than ourselves

The Architecture of Historic Hungary Pál Lővei, 1998 The first comprehensive survey in English of Hungarian architecture from prehistoric settlements to contemporary experiments Perhaps most revealing to Western readers are the illustrations and line drawings which document one of the most neglected but fascinating architectural traditions of Europe 305 illustrations 12 in color

Egyptian Temple Architecture Győző Vörös, 2007 This jubilee book celebrates a century of Hungarian excavations in Egypt which began on 1 January 1907 with the first of nine archaeological missions over four academic generations Through the beautifully illustrated pages of this centenary volume the reader becomes acquainted with the archaeological work of László Almásy Flory Back László Castiglione Gábor Fehérvári Gyula Hajnóczi Gyula Istvánfi László Kosy and Imre Makovecz

Management, Participation and Entrepreneurship in the Cultural and Creative Sector Martin Piber, 2020-06-24 This book elucidates and maps the societal impact of experience and heritage participation and entrepreneurship in the cultural sector The contributions address and explore the relevance of culture cultural entities and heritage as collective memories and reservoirs of experience for other social systems change and societal innovators like entrepreneurs Insofar cultural activities can be understood as a bridge between past experiences and future challenges The first key focus is the participation of people in various contexts initiatives and projects Such participation unleashes creativity and connects different societal layers culture economy and innovation Accordingly a second focus is the entrepreneurial efforts and ideas that originate within arts and culture Readers will find critical empirical and theoretical studies that challenge the current understandings of the cultural sector from different theoretical perspectives and with different methodological approaches A variety of topics are explored within the thematic areas of cultural heritage managerial practices participation and cultural entrepreneurship as well as their inter relations Ultimately the aim is to provide the reader with a better understanding of the sometimes conflicting sometimes mutually fertilizing areas of the arts culture business management and innovation The book will be of interest to scholars students professionals and policymakers Organic Cinema Thorsten

Botz-Bornstein,2017-06-01 The organic is by now a venerable concept within aesthetics architecture and art history but what might such a term mean within the spatialities and temporalities of film By way of an answer this concise and innovative study locates organicity in the work of B la Tarr the renowned Hungarian filmmaker and pioneer of the slow cinema movement Through a wholly original analysis of the long take and other signature features of Tarr s work author Thorsten Botz Bornstein establishes compelling links between the seemingly remote spheres of film and architecture revealing shared organic principles that emphasize the transcendence of boundaries RIBA Journal ,2006 Bibliographie sakrale

Gebäude Rudolf Stegers,2010 Second World Postmodernisms Vladimir Kulic,2019-02-21 If postmodernism is indeed the cultural logic of late capitalism why did typical postmodernist themes like ornament colour history and identity find their application in the architecture of the socialist Second World How do we explain the retreat into paper architecture and theoretical discussion in societies still nominally devoted to socialist modernization Exploring the intersection of two areas of growing scholarly interest postmodernism and the architecture of the former socialist world this edited collection stakes out new ground in charting architecture s various transformations in the 1970s and 80s Fourteen essays together explore the question of whether or not architectural postmodernism had a specific Second World variant The collection demonstrates both the unique nature of Second World architectural phenomena and also assesses connections with western postmodernism The case studies cover the vast geographical scope from Eastern Europe to China and Cuba They address a wealth of aesthetic discursive and practical phenomena interpreting them in the broader socio political context of the last decades of the Cold War The result provides a greatly expanded map of recent architectural history which redefines postmodernist architecture in a more theoretically comprehensive and global way Architecture Today ,2006

Structures and Architecture Paulo J. Cruz,2013-06-27 Although the disciplines of architecture and structural engineering have both experienced their own historical development their interaction has resulted in many fascinating and delightful structures To take this interaction to a higher level there is a need to stimulate the inventive and creative design of architectural structures and to persua
