Playwriting for Puppet Theatre Jean M. Mattson, 1997-07-21 Playwriting for Puppet Theatre provides a foundation for those puppeteers, teachers and librarians who want to develop suitable scripts for puppet theatre. Mattson explores the difference between traditional theatre and puppet theatre and notes the special characteristics of the various puppets. The important aspects of script writing are then addressed. She considers the many general questions which must be answered by the playwright: the type of puppet to be used, the audience and availability of resources and facilities. Suggestions are then given for dramatizing original ideas and for adapting well known stories. The chapter on plot development emphasizes the importance of perspective, transitional material and the need for action. One
