Assessing The Impact Of Transitional Justice Challenges For Empirical Research:

Assessing the Impact of Transitional Justice Hugo Van der Merwe, Victoria Baxter, Audrey R. Chapman, 2009 In Assessing the Impact of Transitional Justice fourteen leading researchers study seventy countries that have suffered from autocratic rule genocide and protracted internal conflict Evaluating Transitional Justice K. Ainley, R. Friedman, C. Mahony, 2016-02-16 This major study examines the successes and failures of the full transitional justice programme in Sierra Leone It sets out the implications of the Sierra Leonean experience for other post conflict situations and for the broader project of evaluating transitional justice Research Handbook on Transitional Justice Cheryl Lawther, Luke Moffett, 2023-08-14 Providing a refreshing take on transitional justice this second edition Research Handbook brings together an expanse of scholarly expertise to reconsider how societies deal with gross human rights violations structural injustices and mass violence Contextualised by historical developments it covers a diverse range of concepts actors and mechanisms of transitional justice while shedding light on new and emerging areas in the field Transitional Justice Hakeem O. Yusuf, Hugo van der Merwe, 2021-09-06 Transitional justice is the way societies that have experienced civil conflict or authoritarian rule and widespread violations of human rights deal with the experience With its roots in law transitional justice as an area of study crosses various fields in the social sciences This book is written with this multi and inter disciplinary dynamic of the field in mind The book presents the broad scope of transitional justice studies through a focus on the theory mechanisms and debates in the area covering such topics as The origin context and development of transitional justice Victims victimology and transitional justice Prosecutions for abuses and gross violations of human rights Truth commissions Transitional justice and local justice Gender political economy and transitional justice Apology reconciliation and the politics of memory Offering a discussion of the impact and outcomes of transitional justice this approach provides valuable insight for those who seek both an introduction alongside relatively advanced engagement with the subject Transitional Justice Theories Mechanisms and Debates is an important text for postgraduate and advanced undergraduate students who take courses in transitional justice human rights and criminal law as well as a systematic reference text for researchers

Transitional Justice in Ghana Marian Yankson-Mensah, 2020-04-08 This book situates Ghana's truth telling process which took place from 2002 to 2004 within the discourse on the effectiveness of the different mechanisms used by post conflict and post dictatorship societies to address gross human rights violations The National Reconciliation Commission was the most comprehensive transitional justice mechanism employed during Ghana's transitional process in addition to amnesties reparations and minimal institutional reforms Due to a blanket amnesty that derailed all prospects of resorting to judicial mechanisms to address gross human rights violations the commission was established as an alternative to prosecutions Against this background the author undertakes a holistic assessment of the National Reconciliation Commission's features mandate procedure and aftermath to ascertain the loopholes in Ghana's transitional process She defines criteria for the assessment which can be utilised with some modifications to assess the impact of other transitional justice mechanisms Furthermore she also reflects on the options and possible setbacks for future attempts to address the gaps in the mechanisms utilised With a detailed account of the human rights violations perpetrated in Ghana from 1957 to 1993 this volume of the International Criminal Justice Series provides a useful insight into the factors that shape the outcomes of transitional justice processes Given its combination of normative comparative and empirical approaches the book will be useful to academics students practitioners and policy makers by fostering their understanding of the implications of the different features of truth commissions the methods for assessing transitional justice mechanisms and the different factors to consider when designing mechanisms to address gross human rights violations in the aftermath of a conflict or dictatorship Marian Yankson Mensah is a Researcher and Project Officer at the International Nuremberg Principles Academy in Nuremberg Germany

Transitional Justice in Post-Communist Romania Lavinia Stan, 2013 This is the first volume to overview the complex Romanian transitional justice effort detail the political negotiations that have led to the adoption and implementation of relevant legislation and assess these processes in terms of their timing sequencing and impact on democratization Finnish Yearbook of International Law, Volume 23, 2012-2013

Jarna Petman, 2016-01-28 The Finnish Yearbook of International Law aspires to honour and strengthen the Finnish tradition in international legal scholarship Open to contributions from all over the world and from all persuasions the Finnish Yearbook stands out as a forum for theoretically informed high quality publications on all aspects of public international law including the international relations law of the European Union The Finnish Yearbook publishes in depth articles and shorter notes commentaries on current developments book reviews and relevant overviews of Finland's state practice While firmly grounded in traditional legal scholarship it is open for new approaches to international law and for work of an interdisciplinary nature The Finnish Yearbook is published for the Finnish Society of International Law by Hart Publishing Volumes prior to volume 19 may be obtained from Martinus Nijhoff an imprint of Brill Publishers

Transformative Transitional Justice and the Malleability of Post-Conflict States Padraig McAuliffe, 2017-03-31 Despite the growing focus on issues of socio economic transformation in contemporary transitional justice the path dependencies imposed by the political economy of war to peace transitions and the limitations imposed by weak statehood are seldom considered This book explores transitional justice's prospects for seeking economic justice and reform of structures of poverty in the specific context of post conflict states

Transitional Justice for Israel/Palestine Jeremie Bracka, 2022-01-01 This book applies the dynamic field of transitional justice to conflict resolution in Israel Palestine Around the globe diverse societies have pursued truth telling restorative justice and reconciliation to end conflict yet the language of transitional justice has been all but absent in Israel Palestine This volume squarely addresses how transitional justice could contribute to conflict transformation and accountability incorporating the questions of collective justice memory and human rights It covers the most important historical and legal issues facing Israel Palestine with a focus on civil societies in South Africa Northern Ireland and Latin America Ultimately the book proposes an unofficial Israeli Palestinian Truth and Empathy Commission IPTEC to address gross human rights abuses committed by both nations Transitional Justice for Israel Palestine will be of interest to researchers NGOs and policy makers working in transitional justice and societies with ongoing conflict
