An Inner Silence The Portraits Of Henri Cartier Bresson:

An Inner Silence, 2007-10-01 Henri Cartier Bresson was perhaps the finest and most influential imagemaker of the 20th century and his portraits are among his best known work Over a fifty year period he photographed some of the most eminent personalities of the era as well as ordinary people chosen as subjects because of their striking and unusual features In 2003 the Fondation Henri Cartier Bresson which was created to provide a permanent home for his collected works opened in Paris This book is published to coincide with the first exhibition at the Fondation that is drawn entirely from those archives and it features both well known images and previously unpublished portraits Each photograph has been chosen because it perfectly embodies Cartier Bresson s description of what he was attempting to communicate in his work Above all I look for an inner silence I seek to translate the personality and not an expression The portraits reproduced here discreet without artifice confirm once more the singular gift of Cartier Bresson who instinctively knew in which revealing fraction of a second to click the shutter

An Inner Silence Henri Cartier-Bresson, 2006 Published to coincide with a first Fondation exhibition to be drawn entirely from the twentieth century photographer s archives a volume of famous and lesser known works is comprised of pieces that most represent Cartier Bresson s intentions

Focusing on the first four images of the Other mobilized in Descartes' Meditations namely the blind the mad the dreamy and the bad Reading Descartes Otherwise casts light on what have heretofore been the phenomenological shadows of Cartesian rationality. In doing so it discovers dynamic signs of spectral alterity lodged both at the core and on the edges of modern Cartesian subjectivity. Calling for a Copernican reorientation of the very notion of Cartesianism the book's series of close creatively critical readings of Descartes' signature images brings the dramatic forces moments and scenes of the cogito into our own contemporary moment. The author patiently unravels the knotted skeins of ambiguity that have been spun within philosophical modernity out of such clichés as Descartes the abstract modern subject and Descartes the father of modern philosophy a figure who is at once everywhere and nowhere. In the process she revitalizes and reframes the legacy of Cartesian modernity in a way more mindful of its proto-phenomenological traces. Henri Cartier-Bresson. by Clément Chroux Clément Chéroux, 2008. Henri Cartier-Bresson's photography came to define the 20th century. This book tells his life story through his images all the major events from his youth to his death in 2004 are described contextualized and analysed in the light of his photographic work. From his early encounters with the Surrealists his film work and his experiences in the Second World War to the development of his own personal aesthetic the concept of the decisive moment and the foundation of Magnum Photos his influence on the world has been profound and unforgettable. Photographer's Forum, 2005.
