An Introduction to Government and Politics M. O. Dickerson, Thomas Flanagan, 1990 An Introduction to Government and Politics M. O. Dickerson, 2011 An Introduction to Government and Politics M. O. Dickerson, Thomas Flanagan, 1988 An Introduction to Government and Politics M. O. Dickerson, Thomas Flanagan, 2002 The Age of Knowledge James Dzisah, Henry Etzkowitz, 2011-10-14 The Age of Knowledge emphasizes that the ongoing transformations of knowledge both within universities and for society more generally must be understood as a reflection of the larger changes in the constitutive social structures within which they are invariably produced translated and reproduced Routledge Handbook of Public Policy in Africa Gedion Onyango, 2021-12-30 This Handbook provides an authoritative and foundational disciplinary overview of African Public Policy and a comprehensive examination of the practicalities of policy analysis policymaking processes implementation and administration in Africa today The book assembles a multidisciplinary team of distinguished and upcoming Africanist scholars practitioners researchers and policy experts working inside and outside Africa to analyse the historical and emerging policy issues in 21st century Africa While mostly attentive to comparative public policy in Africa this book attempts to address some of the following pertinent questions How can public policy be understood and taught in Africa How does policymaking occur in unstable political contexts or in states under pressure Has the democratisation of governing systems improved policy processes in Africa How have recent transformations such as technological proliferation in Africa impacted public policy processes What are the underlying challenges and potential policy paths for Africa going forward The contributions examine an interplay of prevailing institutional political structural challenges and opportunities for policy effectiveness to discern striking commonalities and trajectories across different African states This is a valuable resource for practitioners politicians researchers university students and academics interested in studying and understanding how African countries are governed Introduction to Government and Politics Dickerson, Flanagan, 1998 Value Change and Governance in Canada Neil Nevitte, Professor in the Department of Political Science Neil Nevitte, 2002-01-01 Consequently they argue the institutions of democratic governance now operate in a profoundly different environment than that in which they were founded Misrecognized Materialists Matt James, 2011-11-01 Canada's history of intense constitutional debate is often depicted as a source of national embarrassment a diversion from more sensible endeavours Misrecognized Materialists tells a different story Beginning with the Rowell-Sirois hearings of the Great Depression and concluding with the national unity wars of the late 1980s and early 1990s Matt James details how groups representing marginalized constituencies women working class people and ethnocultural minorities were able to use the Canadian constitutional arena to pursue traditionally neglected aspirations and concerns With concrete illustrations and case studies James questions the common tendency to interpret recognition struggles as departures from traditional materialist priorities such as economic security and personal safety Ultimately he argues that such materialist

priorities were and are in fact at the heart of the fight for recognition for many marginalized groups A book with provocative implications for students and scholars of social movements and identity politics Misrecognized Materialists offers a fresh and important perspective on Canadas constitutional struggles over civic symbolism and identity Winning Power Tom Flanagan, 2014-03-01 Campaigns are central to the practice of modern democracy and integral to political participation in the twenty first century In Winning Power Tom Flanagan draws on decades of experience teaching political science and managing political campaigns to inform readers about what goes on behind the scenes While the goal of political campaigning using persuasion to build a winning coalition remains constant the means of achieving that goal are always changing Flanagan dissects the effects of recent changes in financial regulation and grassroots fundraising the advent of the permanent campaign as well as the increase in negative advertising He pulls these themes together to show how tactics are employed at specific points in a campaign by providing a firsthand account of his management of the Wildrose Party campaign in Alberta s 2012 provincial election Lifting the veil of campaign secrecy he provides a candid account of the successes and mistakes the newly formed party made in an election that nearly toppled the four decade long dynasty of Alberta s Progressive Conservatives Modeling its campaign on the 2006 campaign that brought Stephen Harper to 24 Sussex Drive Wildrose combined grassroots fundraising an innovative platform that reached out to its electoral coalition a carefully scripted leader s tour as well as negative and positive advertising in the race towards leadership Success for the party seemed within reach until breakdowns in message discipline in the campaign s final week caused the Wildrose tide to ebb Citing diverse sources such as game theory evolutionary psychology and Aristotelian rhetoric Flanagan explores the timeless aspects of campaigning and emphasizes new strategies of coalition building For future campaigners Winning Power provides textbook illustrations of what does and doesn t work
