Engraving School Districts With the Cultural Wealth and Social Justice Advocacy of Latina/o/x School Leaders Kendra Lowery, Silvia Romero-Johnson, 2023-03-27 The community cultural wealth that culturally responsive Latina o x school leaders bring to their profession has much to offer Latina o x students and families in particular schools and communities generally aspiring school leaders and those who prepare them Engraving School Districts With the Cultural Wealth and Social Justice Advocacy of Latinx School Leaders examines the lived experiences of eight Latina o x school and district leaders presented as testimonios The authors explain how community cultural wealth which is derived from critical race theory informed professional motivations leadership experiences and advocacy actions Key aspects of Latina o x school leadership include how leaders dismantled deficit based thinking maintained high expectations developed equitable relationships with students and families acknowledged and valued Latino cultures and identities and encouraged Spanish language Connections between the leaders actions culturally responsive leadership and related concepts are drawn The enactment of culturally responsive leadership combined with the centering of Latino cultures and language is evidence of Latino Educational Leadership The concept of engraving is introduced to consider ways in which districts and leader preparation programs can make enduring changes by embedding the culturally responsive practices of Latina o x leaders across all current and aspiring leaders Therefore the responsibility for creating equitable engagement and achievement for Latina o x students and families will not rest solely upon Latina o x leaders

The SoJo Journal Brad J. Porfilio, 2016-12-01 The SoJo Journal Educational Foundations and Social Justice Education is an international peerreviewed journal of educational foundations The Department of Educational Leadership at California State University East Bay whose mission is to prepare and influence bold socially responsible leaders who will transform the world of schooling hosts the journal It publishes essays that examine contemporary educational and social contexts and practices from critical perspectives The SoJo Journal Educational Foundations and Social Justice Education is interested in research studies as well as conceptual theoretical philosophical and policy analysis essays that advance educational practices that challenge the existing state of affairs in society schools and in formal education The SoJo Journal Educational Foundations and Social Justice Education is necessary because currently there is not an exclusively international Foundations of Education journal. For instance, three of the leading journals in Education Foundations are The Journal of Educational Studies, British Journal of Sociology of Education, and The Journal of Educational Foundations. These journals solicit manuscripts and support scholarship mainly from professors who reside in Britain and the United States. This journal is also unique because it will bring together scholars and practitioners from disciplines outside of Educational Foundations who are equally committed to social change and promoting equity and social justice inside and outside of K-16 schools.

Latino Educational Leadership

Cristóbal Rodríguez, Melissa A. Martinez, Fernando Valle, 2018-09-01

Latino Educational Leadership acknowledges the unique preparation and support for both Latinx educational leaders and Latino communities needed throughout the education and policy pipeline. While leadership in communities exists for educational purposes, this effort focuses on the institutional aspect of Latino Educational Leadership across K-12 schools and university settings. The purpose of this book is to create a greater collaborative focus on Latino Educational Leadership by inviting scholarly contributions and insights from both established and up-and-coming scholars. Latino Educational Leadership also advocates for the preparation of all leaders as well as the preparation of Latinx educational leaders to serve Latino communities. Our impetus on Latino Educational Leadership primarily stems from the changing demographics of our country. As of Fall 2017, Latinx student enrollment in K-12 schools reached an all-time high with Latinxs comprising 26.8% of the nation's public school enrollment. Postsecondary-level Latinx student enrollment has also improved, rising from 25% in 2005 to 37% in 2015. Given this growth, particularly at the K-12 level, there has been an increasing urgency to prepare and support more Latinx educational leaders. Their rich cultural and linguistic connections to communities help them more readily understand and meet the needs of Latino students and families. Aside from enrollment growth, Latinxs have made record strides in postsecondary attainment between 2003-04 and 2013-14: bachelor's degrees more than doubled from 94,644 to 202,412; master's degrees conferred rose from 29,806 to 55,965; and doctoral degrees rose from 5,795 to 10,665. Despite such promising gains, concern has not waned over how to best address the challenges this diverse student population continues to face in accessing, persisting, and matriculating across the P-20 Pipeline. There is still work to be done, as only 11% of all bachelor's degrees, 9% of all master's degrees, and 7% of all doctoral degrees were awarded to Latinxs in 2013-14. In particular, there is increasing urgency to address how higher education institutions can better prepare, develop, and retain Latinx leaders and scholars who will serve and meet the needs of Latinx college students to ensure their academic success. Thus, the purpose of this book is to advance the knowledge related to serving Latino communities and preparing Latinx leaders.
