concepts amazon com On Video Games Soraya Murray, 2017-10-30 Today over half of all American households own a dedicated game console and gaming industry profits trump those of the film industry worldwide In this book Soraya Murray moves past the technical discussions of games and offers a fresh and incisive look at their cultural dimensions She critically explores blockbusters like The Last of Us Metal Gear Solid Spec Ops The Line Tomb Raider and Assassin's Creed to show how they are deeply entangled with American ideological positions and contemporary political cultural and economic conflicts As quintessential forms of visual material in the twenty first century mainstream games both mirror and spur larger societal fears hopes and dreams and even address complex struggles for recognition This book examines both their elaborately constructed characters and densely layered worlds whose social and environmental landscapes reflect ideas about gender race globalisation and urban life In this emerging field of study Murray provides novel theoretical approaches to discussing games and playable media as culture Demonstrating that games are at the frontline of power relations she reimagines how we see them and more importantly how we understand them Farewell to Visual Studies James Elkins, Gustav Frank, Sunil Manghani, 2015-10-28 Each of the five volumes in the Stone Art Theory Institutes series brings together a range of scholars who are not always directly familiar with one another's work The outcome of each of these convergences is an extensive and unpredictable conversation on knotty and provocative issues about art This fifth and final volume in the series focuses on the identity nature and future of visual studies discussing critical questions about its history objects and methods The contributors question the canon of literature of visual studies and the place of visual studies with relation to theories of vision visibility epistemology politics and art history giving voice to a variety of inter and transdisciplinary perspectives Rather than dismissing visual studies as its provocative title might suggest this volume aims to engage a critical discussion of the state of visual studies today how it might move forward and what it might leave behind to evolve in productive ways The contributors are Emmanuel Alloa Nell Andrew Linda Bez Rub Martin A Berger Hans Dam Christensen Isabelle Decobecq Bernhard J Dotzler Johanna Drucker James Elkins Michele Emmer Yolaine Escande Gustav Frank Theodore Gracyk Asbjørn Grønstad Stephan Günzel Charles W Haxthausen Miguel Hernández Navarro Tom Holert K van Klink Charlotte Klonk Tirza True Latimer Mark Linder Sunil Manghani Anna Notaro Julia Orell Mark Reinhardt Vanessa R Schwartz Bernd Stiegler yvind Vignès Sjoukje van der Meulen Terri Weissman Lisa Zaher and Marta Zarzycka Visualizing the Text Lauren Beck, Christina Ionescu, 2017-05-01 This volume presents in depth and contextualized analyses of a wealth of visual materials These documents provide viewers with a mesmerizing and informative glimpse into how the early modern world was interpreted by image makers and presented to viewers during a period that spans from manuscript culture to the age of caricature The premise of this collection responds to a fundamental question how are early modern texts objects and systems of knowledge imaged and consumed through bimodal hybrid or intermedial products that rely on both words and pictures to convey meaning The twelve contributors to this collection go beyond traditional lines of inquiry into word and image interaction to deconstruct visual dynamics and politics to show how images were shaped manipulated displayed and distributed to represent the material world to propagate official and commercial messages to support religious practice and ideology or to embody relations of power These chapters are anchored in various theoretical and disciplinary points of departure such as the history of collections and collecting literary theory and criticism the histories of science art history and visual culture word and image studies as well as print culture and book illustration Authors draw upon a wide range of visual material hitherto insufficiently explored and placed in context in some cases hidden in museums and archives or previously assessed only from a disciplinary standpoint that favored either the image or the text but not both in relation to each other They include manuscript illuminations representing compilers and collections frontispieces and other accompanying plates published in catalogues and museographies astronomical diagrams mixed pictographic alphabetic accounting documents Spanish baroque paintings illustrative frontispieces or series inspired by or designed for single novels or anthologies anatomical drawings featured in encyclopedic publications visual patterns of volcanic formations engravings representing the New World that accompany non fictional travelogues commonplace books that interlace text and images and graphic satire Geographically the collection covers imperial centers Great Britain France the Netherlands and Spain as well as their colonial periphery New France Mexico Central America South America in particular Brazil parts of Africa and the island of Ceylon Emblematic and thought provoking these images are only fragments of the multifaceted and comprehensive visual mosaic created during the early modern period but their consideration has far reaching implications Routledge
