The Crowning of a Poet's Quest Paola Loreto, 2009 This first extended study of Derek Walcott's Tiepolo's Hound 2000 defines the book as the culmination of the poetry and poetics of the Caribbean writer and Nobel Prize winner In this long poem Walcott achieves three goals pursued throughout his career to develop an original Caribbean aesthetic to meld the modes of poetry and prose and to formulate the Bildung of the island artist in terms of an autobiographical narrative The analysis provides an aesthetic and cultural evaluation of the poem in terms both of the Western poetic tradition to which it refers through its rich intertextuality and of its significance as a postcolonial milestone The commentary locates Walcott in an aesthetic tradition running from Emerson through the American Pragmatists to modernist poets describes his experimental use of certain central narrative strategies in his semi autobiographical long poems which is compared to those of another openly admired

bilingual writer Vladimir Nabokov explores Walcott's revision of the epic mode and of the genre of autobiography delineates his unfolding of a post Romantic internalization of the poet's Arthurian quest and discusses his complex treatment of the multi layered metaphor of light as major evidence of the maturity of his style and poetic with their conscious cross fertilization between the literary cultures of Europe and the Caribbean An appendix to this study contains the transcriptions of various Walcott events that took place in Italy in the summers of 2000 and 2001 including a creative writing seminar a press conference and readings This extensive material opens a window onto Walcott's gifts as a teacher to his stringent yet passionate commitment to the art of poetry and to the ways in which he and his students grapple with the challenges of literary translation

Something of Myself and Others Mary Kenny, 2013-11-15 We are all witnesses of our time and this is something of a witness to mine Something of Myself and Others is a fascinating collection of articles and reflections on the public and private life of one of Ireland's best known journalists Detailing memorable events in her life as well as those she has witnessed in Ireland's recent history Mary Kenny recalls her experiences with humour and charm In this collection of articles some of which have appeared previously in a number of newspapers and magazines Kenny reflects on the people she has known the places she has been and the experiences that have shaped her Something of Myself and Others is a wonderfully varied and entertaining read In it Mary chronicles her adventures as a young ambitious journalist through to her current personal challenges with illness and loss She recalls bringing down a Cabinet minister aboard the Queen Mary introducing Irish president Michael D Higgins to his wife interviewing Grace of Monaco and Marlene Dietrich and being complimented by the Queen She talks with great heart about the absent friends that have influenced her such as Terry Keane June Levine and Maeve Binchey She gives her account of the now infamous trip to Belfast aboard the contraception train as well as some reflections on culture religion and Irish society Alongside stories of the famous faces she has encountered Mary also writes candidly on the loss of her sister Ursula and her recent experience as primary carer for her husband Richard Something of Myself and Others is not an autobiography Instead Mary Kenny has assembled a refreshing collection of articles that are sometimes funny often poignant and always sharply perceptive giving a wonderful insight into the life of one of Ireland's most prolific journalists All My Friends are Zombies! By: Matthew Sebert, 2013-06-07 Have you ever wondered if there was more to the walking dead Those creatures aimlessly wandering the streets of a post apocalyptic world searching for that sweet fresh flesh Are their thoughts limited only to that one thing we all know they crave Or is there to the Zombie than meets the eye All My Friends are Zombies aims to give an in depth look at the Zombie as an individual Complete with original detailed illustrations All My Friends are Zombies paints the picture of what life is like for the living dead The Poetical Works of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1884
