Graham, 2017-05-15 William A Graham a leading international scholar in the field of Islamic Studies gathers together his selected writings under three sections 1 History and Interpretation of Islamic Religion 2 The Qur an as Scripture and 3 Scripture in the History of Religion Each section opens with a new introduction by Graham and a bibliography of his works is included Graham s work in Islamic studies focuses largely on the analysis and interpretation of the religious dimensions of ritual action scriptural piety textual authority revelation tradition and major concepts such as grace and transcendence His work in the comparative history of religion has focused in particular on the problem of scripture as a cross cultural religious phenomenon that is more complex than simply sacred text This invaluable resource will be of primary interest to students of the Islamic tradition especially as regards Qur'anic piety Muslim ritual practice and fundamental structures of Islamic thought and to students of the comparative history of religion especially as regards the phenomenon of scripture and its analogs

The Gospels in Islamic Context Georgina L. Jardim, Ida Glaser, Shirin Shafaie, 2025-09-30 Bringing together scholars from across the world this publication shows Christians and Muslims individually or together reading the canonical Gospels of the New Testament in conversation with Islamic texts and contexts In the discovery of meaning between text context and praxis this volume asks what are the texts doing in contexts as far flung as Indonesia the Hijaz of early Islam in Persian poetry of medieval times or modern Sunni interpretation in north America This second edited volume in the series Reading the Bible in Islamic Context continues the pioneering venture in contextual and intertextual reading It shows the richness of cooperative scholarship that results from reading the New Testament in Islamic context and exploring how the Gospel is understood in various religious traditions The Gospels in Islamic Context will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners encouraging them to explore new methods for taking into account intertextual factors as well as the history of Muslim Christian relations that arises from them It is a venture in which Muslims and Christians travel side by side and in conversation with each other although with significantly different perspectives and often different agendas

Routledge Handbook of Islam in the West Roberto Tottoli, 2014-09-19 Islam has long been a part of the West in terms of religion culture politics and society Discussing this interaction from al Andalus to the present this Handbook explores the influence Islam has had and continues to exert particularly its impact on host societies culture and politics Highlighting specific themes and topics in history and culture chapters cover European paradigms Muslims in the Americas Cultural interactions Islamic cultural contributions to the Western world Western contributions to Islam Providing a sound historical background from which a nuanced overview of Islam and Western society can be built the Routledge Handbook of Islam in the West brings to the fore specific themes and topics that have generated both reciprocal influence and conflict Presenting readers with a range of perspectives from scholars based in Europe the US and the Middle East this Handbook challenges perceptions on both western and Muslim sides and will be an invaluable resource for policymakers and academics with an interest in the History of Islam Religion and the contemporary relationship between Islam and the West
