Alice Wonderland Hinter Den Spiegeln:

Interconnecting Translation Studies and Imagology Luc van Doorslaer, Peter Flynn, Joep Leerssen, 2016-02-25 Isn't translation all about saying exactly the same thing in another language? Aren't national images totally outdated in this era of globalization? Most people might agree but this book amply illustrates how persistent and multifaceted clichés on translation and nation can be. Time and again translating involves making transfer choices and these choices are never neutral. Though globalization has seemingly all but erased national ideologies and cultural borders such ideologies and borders continue to play a determining role in conflicts, identity politics and cultural profiles. The place where transfer choices and forms of national and cultural representation come together is also the place where Translation Studies and Imagology meet. This book offers a wealth of chapters showing how decisive selection and transfer processes can be in representing national images, both self-images and images of the others. It shows also how intensely the two disciplines can work together and mutually benefit from shared data and methodologies. , International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Peter Hunt, 2004-08-02 Children's literature continues to be one of the most rapidly expanding and exciting of interdisciplinary academic studies of interest to anyone concerned with literature, education, internationalism, childhood or culture in general. The second edition of Peter Hunt's bestselling International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature offers comprehensive coverage of the subject across the world with substantial, accessible articles by specialists and world-ranking experts. Almost everything is here, from advanced theory to the latest practice, from bibliographical research to working with books and children with special needs. This edition has been expanded and includes over fifty new articles. All of the other articles have been updated, substantially revised or rewritten, or have revised bibliographies. New topics include Postcolonialism, Comparative Studies, Ancient Texts, Contemporary Children's Rhymes and Folklore, Contemporary Comics, War Horror, Series Fiction, Film, Creative Writing and Crossover literature. The international section has been expanded to reflect world events and now includes separate articles on countries such as the Baltic states, the Czech and Slovak Republics, Iran, Korea, Mexico and Central America, Slovenia and Taiwan. Comparative Children's Literature Emer O'Sullivan, 2005-03-05 Emer O'Sullivan traces the history of children's literature studies from the enthusiastic internationalism of the post-war period which set out from the idea of a world republic of childhood to modern comparative criticism. The Turkish Turn in Contemporary German Literature L. Adelson, 2005-08-19 Challenging the commonplace that suspends migrants between two worlds, this study turns a refreshingly curious eye to complex cultural relations and literary novelties wrought by Turkish migration to Germany. At interpretive and historic crossroads involving dialogue and storytelling, genocide and taboo, and capital and labour in the 1990s, this book illuminates far-reaching imaginative effects that literatures of migration can engender. In critical conversation with Arjun Appadurai, Seyla Benhabib, Homi Bhabha, Rey Chow, Andreas Huyssen, Dominick LaCapra, Doris Sommer and many others, Adelson probes history and
