

The background is a vibrant, abstract composition. It features a textured surface with a mix of yellow, orange, red, and green hues. A prominent red outline of a face, possibly a stylized or indigenous figure, is visible in the lower half. Above the face, there are several overlapping, semi-transparent circular shapes in shades of purple and blue. The title 'ALL CHANGE!' is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font on a black rectangular background, which is tilted slightly upwards to the right.

All Change Romani Studies Through Romani Eyes:

All Change! Damian Le Bas, Thomas Alan Acton, 2010 The welcome emergence of a Gypsy Roma Traveller academic and intellectual community has stimulated new reflections on and reassessments of many of the established ideas surrounding Romani history and culture New questions are being asked and in turn new critical challenges have arisen in part because for these individuals Gypsy identity has never been something exotic and Other but their own This volume offers new perspectives on the Romani experience from voices that speak with authority and authenticity Eminent scholar Professor Ian Hancock University of Texas at Austin explores h Memory and Change in Europe Małgorzata Pakier, Joanna Wawrzyniak, 2015-11-01 In studies of a common European past there is a significant lack of scholarship on the former Eastern Bloc countries While understanding the importance of shifting the focus of European memory eastward contributors to this volume avoid the trap of Eastern European exceptionalism an assumption that this region s experiences are too unique to render them comparable to the rest of Europe They offer a reflection on memory from an Eastern European historical perspective one that can be measured against or applied to historical experience in other parts of Europe In this way the authors situate studies on memory in Eastern Europe within the broader debate on European memory Gypsies and Travellers Joanna Richardson, Andrew Richard Ryder, 2012 This title brings together some of the top experts in their fields to help the reader to understand Gypsy and traveller identity Traitors, Collaborators and Deserters in Contemporary European Politics of Memory Gelinada Grinchenko, Eleonora Narvselius, 2017-12-01 This volume offers a multidisciplinary approach to shaping and imposition of formulas for betrayal as a result of changing memory politics in post war Europe The contributors who specialize in history sociology anthropology memory studies media studies and cultural studies discuss the exertion of political control over memory including the selection imposition silencing or ideological twisting of facts the usage of formulas for betrayal in various cultural political contexts and the discursive framing of the betraying subject for the purpose of legitimizing various memory regimes and ideologies Writing the Roma Cynthia Levine-Rasky, 2016-09-13T00:00:00Z The culmination of four years of ethnographic research at the Roma Community Centre in Toronto Writing the Roma is the first book to provide an overview of the identities origins history and treatment of Roma refugees Cynthia Levine Rasky traces the historical and cultural roots of the Roma in Europe through their genocide in the Holocaust their persecution in Eastern Europe in the post Communist era to their settlement as refugees in Canada What emerges is a book that challenges the stereotypes surrounding this non territorial nation while exposing the ways that Canadian immigration policies have affected Roma populations The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature s relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Youth Marginality in Britain Blackman, Shane, Rogers, Ruth, 2017-06-28 Though they tend to get less attention than other disadvantaged groups huge numbers of young people today in Britain are marginalized experiencing isolation social hardship gender and ethnic discrimination and overall social stigma a situation that has been exacerbated by the combination of austerity measures and a weak job market that has all too often cut young people off from support and employment This book sets that marginalization in the broader context of austerity poverty and inequality to show both recent changes and long term continuity in the position of young people with a special emphasis on the voice of youth and the forms of resistance they adopt

Coloniality and Decolonisation in the Nordic Region Adrián Groglopo, Julia Suárez-Krabbe, 2023-03-22 This book advances critical discussions about what coloniality decoloniality and decolonisation mean and imply in the Nordic region It brings together analysis of complex realities from the perspectives of the Nordic peoples a region that is often overlooked in current research and explores the processes of decolonisation that are taking place in this region The book offers a variety of perspectives that engage with issues such as Islamic feminism and the progressive left racialisation and agency among Muslim youths indigenising distance language education for Sami extractivism and resistance among the Sami the Nordic international development endeavour through education Swedish TV reporting on Venezuela creolizing subjectivities across Roma and non Roma worlds and hierarchies and the whitewashing and sanitisation of decoloniality in the Nordic region As such this book extends much of the productive dialogue that has recently occurred internationally in decolonial thinking but also in the areas of critical race theory whiteness studies and postcolonial studies to concrete and critical problems in the Nordic region This should make the book of considerable interest to scholars of history of ideas anthropology sociology cultural studies postcolonial studies international development studies legal sociology and intercultural philosophy with an interest in coloniality and decolonial social change Ancestral Journeys: The Peopling of Europe from the First Venturers to the Vikings Jean Manco, 2013-10-07 Incorporates the latest discoveries and theories from archaeology genetics history and linguistics to paint a spirited history of European settlement Who are the Europeans and where did they come from In recent years scientific advances have released a mass of data turning cherished ideas upside down The idea of migration in prehistory so long out of favor is back on the agenda New advances allow us to track human movement and the spread of crops animals and disease and we can see the evidence of population crashes and rises both continent wide and locally Visions of continuity have been replaced with a more dynamic view of Europe s past with one wave of migration followed by another from the first human arrivals in Europe to the Vikings Ancient DNA links Europe to its nearest neighbors It is not a new idea that farming was brought from the Near East but genetics now reveal an unexpectedly complex process in which farmers arrived not in one wave but several Even more unexpected is the evidence that the European gene pool was stirred vigorously many times after farming had reached most of Europe Climate change played a part in this upheaval but so did new inventions such as the cart and wheeled vehicles Genetic and linguistic clues also enhance our understanding of the upheavals of the Migration Period the wanderings of steppe nomads and the adventures of the Vikings
