Allan Sekula Allan Sekula, 2015 Allan Sekula Fish story A. Sekula, 1995 Fish Story Allan Sekula, 1995 Photographs by Allan Sekula Text by Benjamin Buchloh Fragmentary Image Jamie Smyth, 2016 Allan Sekula, 1995 The Photographic Paradigm Annette W. Balkema, Henk Slager, 1997 Opstellen over de fotografie en fotografische zienswijzen als paradigma in de hedendaagse beeldende kunst What Is Contemporary Art? Terry E. Smith, 2009-10-15 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today's multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going Coding and Representation from the Nineteenth Century to the Present Anne Chapman, Natalie Hume, 2021-05-10 An exploration of trends and cultures connected to electrical telegraphy and recent digital communications this collection emerges from the research project Scrambled Messages The Telegraphic Imaginary 1866 1900 which investigated cultural phenomena relating to the 1866 transatlantic telegraph It interrogates the ways in which society politics literature and art are imbricated with changing communications technologies from the mid nineteenth century to the present Contributors consider control imperialism and capital as well as utopianism and hope grappling with the ways in which human connections and their messages continue to be shaped by communications infrastructures Architecture Follows Fish Andre Tavares, 2024-10-29 A highly original exploration of the history of architecture in relation to fish shedding light on the connection between marine environments and terrestrial landscapes Architecture Follows Fish is set in the North Atlantic and its protagonist is fish In this book author and architect Andr Tavares explores the notion of fishing architecture a concept coined to describe architectural practices that are spawned by fisheries To encompass the scope of fishing architecture and to establish the connections between marine ecology and architectural practice the book oscillates between different continents centuries and species Fisheries are unique and this book sheds light on that uniqueness through an articulated narrative and a wealth of iconography Up until now there has been no history of architecture from the perspective of fish although there are counterparts for meat timber oil and many other industries Tavares provides a

counternarrative to the traditional history of marine environments which tends to focus on water ecosystems and instead forms a bridge between what happens at sea and what happens on land The hope is that after reading this book readers will better understand life in the sea in relation to urban growth and terrestrial landscapes
