Al Ghazali S Philosophical Theology Al Ghazali S Philosophical Theology:

Al-Ghazali's Philosophical Theology Frank Griffel, 2009-05-28 The Muslim thinker al Ghazali d 1111 was one of the most influential theologians and philosophers of Islam and has been considered an authority in both Western and Islamic philosophical traditions Born in northeastern Iran he held the most prestigious academic post in Islamic theology in Baghdad only to renounce the position and teach at small schools in the provinces for no money His contributions to Islamic scholarship range from responding to the challenges of Aristotelian philosophy to creating a new type of Islamic mysticism and integrating both these traditions falsafa and Sufism into the Sunni mainstream This book offers a comprehensive study of al Ghazali s life and his understanding of cosmology how God creates things and events in the world how human acts relate to God s power and how the universe is structured Frank Griffel presents a serious revision of traditional views on al Ghazali showing that his most important achievement was the creation of a new rationalist theology in which he transformed the Aristotelian views of thinkers such as Avicenna to accord with intellectual currents that were well established within Muslim theological discourse Using the most authoritative sources including reports from al Ghazali s students his contemporaries and his own letters Griffel reconstructs every stage in a turbulent career The al Ghazali that emerges offers many surprises particularly on his motives for leaving Baghdad and the nature of his seclusion afterwards Griffel demonstrates that al Ghazali intended to create a new cosmology that moved away from concerns held earlier by Muslim theologians and Arab philosophers This new theology aimed to provide a framework for the pursuit of the natural sciences and a basis for Islamic science and philosophy to flourish beyond the 12th century Al Ghazali s Philosophical Theology is the most thorough examination to date of this important thinker Al-Ghazali's Philosophical Theology ,2012 Al-Ghazali's "Moderation in Belief" Al-Ghazali, 2024-05-31 Centuries after his death al Ghazali remains one of the most influential figures of the Islamic intellectual tradition Although he is best known for his Incoherence of the Philosophers Moderation in Belief is his most profound work of philosophical theology In it he offers what scholars consider to be the best defense of the Ash arite school of Islamic theology that gained acceptance within orthodox Sunni theology in the twelfth century though he also diverges from Ash arism with his more rationalist approach to the Quran Together with The Incoherence of the Philosophers Moderation in Belief informs many subsequent theological debates and its influence extends beyond the Islamic tradition informing broader questions within Western philosophical and theological thought The first complete English language edition of Moderation in Belief this new annotated translation by Aladdin M Yaqub draws on the most esteemed critical editions of the Arabic texts and offers detailed commentary that analyzes and reconstructs the arguments found in the work s four treatises Explanations of the historical and intellectual background of the texts also enable readers with a limited knowledge of classical Arabic to fully explore al Ghazali and this foundational text for the first time With the recent resurgence of interest in Islamic philosophy and the conflict between philosophy and religion this new translation will be a welcome addition to the scholarship Al-Ghazālī and the Idea of Moral Beauty Sophia Vasalou, 2021-09-23 Al Ghazālī and the Idea of Moral Beauty rethinks the relationship between the good and the beautiful by considering the work of eleventh century Muslim theologian Abū al-Ghazālī d. 1111. A giant of Islamic intellectual history, al-Ghazālī is celebrated for his achievements in a wide range of disciplines. One of his greatest intellectual contributions lies in the sphere of ethics where he presided over an ambitious attempt to integrate philosophical and scriptural ideas into a seamless ethical vision. The connection between ethics and aesthetics turns out to be a signature feature of this account. Virtue is one of the forms of beauty and human beings are naturally disposed to respond to it with love. The universal human response to beauty in turn provides the central paradigm for thinking about the love commanded by God. While al-Ghazālī's account of divine love has received ample attention, his special way of drawing the good into relation with the beautiful has oddly escaped remark. In this book, Sophia Vasalou addresses this gap by offering a philosophical and contextual study of this aspect of al-Ghazālī's ethics and of the conception of moral beauty that emerges from it. This book will be of interest to scholars and students in Islamic ethics, Islamic intellectual history and the history of ethics.

Islam and Rationality Frank Griffel, 2015-10-20 Al-Ghazālī d. 505/1111 is one of the most influential thinkers of Islam. There is hardly a genre of Islamic literature where he is not regarded as a major authority. Islamic Law, Sufism, ethics, philosophy and theology are all deeply shaped by him. Yet in the past thirty years, the field of Ghazālī studies has been shaken by the realization that Avicenna (Ibn Sīnā d. 428/1037) and other philosophers had a strong influence on him. Now, after the 900th anniversary of his death, the field emerges stronger than ever. This second volume of Islam and Rationality: The Impact of al-Ghazālī brings together twelve leading experts on al-Ghazālī who write about his thought and the impact it had on later Muslim thinkers. Contributors are Anna Ayoub Akasoy, Ahmed El Shamsy, Kenneth Garden, Frank Griffel, Jules Janssens, Damien Janos Taneli, Kukkonen, Stephen Ogden, M. Sait Zervari, Martin Riexinger, Ulrich Rudolph and Ayman Shihadeh.

Islam and Rationality Frank Griffel, 2022-02-17 The second volume of Islam and Rationality: The Impact of al-Ghazālī brings together twelve leading experts in the field of Ghazālī studies who write about his thought and the influence he had on later Muslim thinkers.

The Formation of Post-Classical Philosophy in Islam Frank Griffel, 2021-06-08 In this monumental new work, Frank Griffel argues that what he calls the post-classical period of Islamic philosophy has been unjustly maligned and neglected by previous generations of scholars. The Formation of Post-Classical Philosophy in Islam is a comprehensive study of the far-reaching changes that led to a re-shaping of the philosophical discourse in Islam during the twelfth century when Muslim thinkers began to produce books in a new genre of philosophical literature they called ikma.

Making Peace with the Universe Michael Scott Alexander, 2020-11-03 The world's great religious and philosophical traditions often include poignant testimonies of spiritual turmoil and healing. Following episodes of harrowing personal crisis, including addictions, periods of anxiety and panic, and reminders of mortality, these accounts then also describe pathways to consolation and resolution. In Making Peace with the Universe, Michael Scott

Alexander reads diverse classic religious accounts as masterpieces of therapeutic insight In the company of William James Socrates Muslim legal scholar turned mystic Hamid al Ghazali Chinggis Khan as described by the Daoist monk Qui Chuji and jazz musician and Catholic convert Mary Lou Williams Alexander traces the steps from existential crisis to psychological health He recasts spiritual confessions as case histories of therapy showing how they remain radical and deeply meaningful even in an age of scientific psychology They record the therapeutic affect of spiritual experience testifying to the achievement of psychological well being through the cultivation of an edifying spiritual mood Mixing scholarly learning with episodes from his own skeptical quest Alexander demonstrates how these accounts of private terror and personal triumph offer a model of therapy through spiritual adventure An interdisciplinary consideration of the shared terrain of religion and psychology Making Peace with the Universe offers an innovative view of what spiritual traditions can teach us about finding meaning in the modern world

Science and Religion Gary B. Ferngren, 2013-06-17 Written by distinguished historians of science and religion the thirty essays in this volume survey the relationship of Western religious traditions to science from the beginning of the Christian era to the late twentieth century This wide ranging collection also introduces a variety of approaches to understanding their intersection suggesting a model not of inalterable conflict but of complex interaction Tracing the rise of science from its birth in the medieval West through the scientific revolution the contributors describe major shifts that were marked by discoveries such as those of Copernicus Galileo and Isaac Newton and the Catholic and Protestant reactions to them They assess changes in scientific understanding brought about by eighteenth and nineteenth century transformations in geology cosmology and biology together with the responses of both mainstream religious groups and such newer movements as evangelicalism and fundamentalism The book also treats the theological implications of contemporary science and evaluates recent approaches such as environmentalism gender studies social construction and postmodernism which are at the center of current debates in the historiography
