Brighton at War 1939-45 Douglas d'Enno, 2021-11-24 Long before war was declared on 3 September 1939 Brighton had steadily and carefully prepared for the coming conflict by building shelters organising defence and rescue services and providing the population with advice of its own or from government sources These precautions stood the town in good stead when the first bombs fell on it in mid 1940 and during the many subsequent attacks The resort did not admittedly suffer as grievously as some others on the South Coast yet civilian casualties totalled nearly 1 000 of whom over 200 were killed 357 were seriously injured and 433 slightly injured This is not the first book to reveal the toll of the bombs locally but it is the first to describe in parallel day to day events and societal responses during the nearly six years of conflict As elsewhere restrictions often made life arduous for residents Yet despite the hardship the town s citizens even marshalled sufficient resources to adopt two battleships and generously saved towards assisting with other wartime causes such as help to our ally Russia The hospitality trade and resort related services suffered greatly during the periods when the defence ban on entering the town was enforced In many respects however life went on largely as before particularly in the spheres of entertainment leisure and some sports Douglas d Enno an authority on the history of Brighton and environs shows in meticulous detail in absorbing text and numerous pictures how life in wartime Brighton was a struggle for many but never dull Cutting for All! Kevin L. Seligman,1996 Containing 2 729 entries Kevin L Seligman s bibliography concentrates on books manuals journals and catalogs covering a wide range of sartorial approaches over nearly five hundred years After a historical overview Seligman approaches his subject chronologically listing items by century through 1799 then by decade In this section he deals with works on flat patterning draping grading and tailoring techniques as well as on such related topics as accessories armor civil costumes clerical costumes dressmakers systems fur gloves leather military uniforms and undergarments Seligman then devotes a section to those American and English journals published for the professional tailor and dressmaker Here too he includes the related areas of fur and undergarments A section devoted to journal articles features selected articles from costume and noncostumerelated professional journals and periodicals The author breaks these articles down into three categories American English and other Seligman then devotes separate sections to other related areas providing alphabetical listings of books and professional journals for costume and dance dolls folk and national dress footwear millinery and wigmaking and hair A section devoted to commercial pattern companies periodicals and catalogs is followed by an appendix covering pattern companies publishers and publications In addition to full bibliographic notation Seligman provides a library call number and library location if that information is available The majority of the listings are annotated Each listing is coded for identification and cross referencing An author index a title index a subject index and a chronological index will guide readers to the material they want Seligman s historical review of the development of publications on the sartorial arts professional journals and the commercial paper pattern industry puts the bibliographical material into context An appendix provides a cross reference guide for research on American and English pattern companies publishers and publications Given the size and scope of the bibliography there is no other reference work even remotely like it The World Trust Survey Charles Gothard,2010 The use of international trusts continues to expand and practitioners increasingly need to be aware of cross border considerations This title provides a concise and practical overview of the key aspects of law and practice in all the key jurisdictions offering trusts Private and commercial trusts are established under the law of an increasing number of jurisdictions which are competing to attract trust business and these laws are often dissimilar As international trusts mature established trust jurisdictions are changing their laws to comply with the legal demands and standards imposed by international agencies as well as to meet the legitimate expectations of the institutional investor. The courts of international centers are also developing their own jurisprudence. In addition, jurisdictions new to trusts are introducing trusts in the vehicles which they offer investors and legislation from these new trust centers is opening up new routes for international investment and tax mitigation. This book provides a comprehensive treatment of the subject covering all the key on shore and off shore jurisdictions that practitioners typically encounter. It offers a very practical overview of the subject using a questionnaire format for each country, avoiding academic material and giving concise answers to the sorts of frequently asked questions that arise in trust law and practice. The questionnaire covers a full range of subjects such as the mechanics of trusts, issues such as anti money laundering laws and conflicts of laws, shams, protectors and forced heirship as well as the different types of trusts used in a jurisdiction. Formerly an annual special issue in the journal Trusts Trustees, this title has been improved and extended with a reworked questionnaire, new countries and contributors and a new editor.
