Bodily Arts Rhetoric And Athletics In Ancient Greece:

Bodily Arts Debra Hawhee, 2004 The role of athletics in ancient Greece extended well beyond the realms of kinesiology competition and entertainment In teaching and philosophy athletic practices overlapped with rhetorical ones and formed a shared mode of knowledge production Bodily Arts examines this intriguing intersection offering an important context for understanding the attitudes of ancient Greeks toward themselves and their environment In classical society rhetoric was an activity one that was in essence performed Detailing how athletics came to be rhetoric's twin art in the bodily aspects of learning and performance Bodily Arts draws on diverse orators and philosophers such as Isocrates Demosthenes and Plato as well as medical treatises and a wealth of artifacts from the time including statues and vases Debra Hawhee's insightful study spotlights the notion of a classical gymnasium as the location for a habitual mingling of athletic and rhetorical performances and the use of ancient athletic instruction to create rhetorical training based on rhythm repetition and response Presenting her data against the backdrop of a broad cultural perspective rather than a narrow disciplinary one Hawhee presents a pioneering interpretation of Greek civilization from the sixth fifth and fourth centuries BCE by observing its citizens in action

Language and Power on the Rhetorical Stage Fiona Harris Ramsby, 2020-12-29 Through a fusion of narrative and analysis Language and Power on the Rhetorical Stage examines how theater can enact critical discourse analysis and how micro instances of iniquitous language use have been politically and historically reiterated to oppress and deny equal rights to marginalized groups of people Drawing from Aristophanes rhetorical plays as a template for rhetoric in action the author poses the stage as a rhetorical site whereby we can observe see and feel 20th century rhetorical theories of the body Using critical discourse analysis and Judith Butler's theories of the performative body as a methodological and analytical lens the book explores how a handful of American plays in the latter part of the 20th century the works of Tony Kushner Suzan Lori Parks and John Cameron Mitchell among others use rhetoric in order to perform and challenge marginalizing language about groups that are not offered center stage in public and political spheres This innovative study initiates a conversation long overdue between scholars in rhetorical and performance studies as such it will be essential reading for academic researchers and graduate students in the areas of rhetorical studies performance studies theater studies and critical discourse analysis

A Cultural History of Sport in Antiquity Paul Christesen, Charles H. Stocking, 2022-08-31 A Cultural History of Sport in Antiquity covers the period 800 BCE to 600 CE From the founding of the Olympics and Rome's celebratory games sport permeated the cultural life of Greco Roman antiquity almost as it does our own Gymnasiums public baths monumental arenas and circuses for chariot racing were constructed and athletic contests proliferated Sports themed household objects were very popular whilst the exploits of individual athletes gladiators and charioteers were immortalized in poetry monuments and the mosaic floors of the wealthy This rich sporting culture attests to the importance of leisure among the middle and upper classes of the Greco Roman world but by 600 CE rising costs barbarian invasions and Christianity had swept it all away The 6

volume set of the Cultural History of Sport presents the first comprehensive history from classical antiquity to today covering all forms and aspects of sport and its ever changing social cultural political and economic context and impact The themes covered in each volume are the purpose of sport sporting time and sporting space products training and technology rules and order conflict and accommodation inclusion exclusion and segregation minds bodies and identities representation Paul Christesen is Professor at Dartmouth College USA Charles Stocking is Associate Professor at Western University Canada Volume 1 in the Cultural History of Sport set General Editors Wray Vamplew Mark Dyreson and John McClelland

The Oxford Handbook of Sport and Spectacle in the Ancient World Alison Futrell, Thomas Francis Scanlon, 2021 Examines the history of ancient sport and spectacle in Greece and Rome as well as issues of class civic contexts spaces health gender and sexuality Blends Greek and Roman topics to illuminate tensions and complementarities between different social and political contexts Authoritative scholars present novel insights and new avenues of research to give readers contemporary interpretations of Greek sport and Roman spectacle Book jacket

Rhetoric, History, and Women's Oratorical Education David Gold, Catherine L. Hobbs, 2013-05-02 Historians of rhetoric have long worked to recover women's education in reading and writing but have only recently begun to explore women's speaking practices from the parlor to the platform to the varied types of institutions where women learned elocutionary and oratorical skills in preparation for professional and public life This book fills an important gap in the history of rhetoric and suggests new paths for the way histories may be told in the future tracing the shifting arc of women's oratorical training as it develops from forms of eighteenth century rhetoric into institutional and extrainstitutional settings at the end of the nineteenth century and diverges into several distinct streams of community embodied theory and practice in the twentieth Treating key rhetors genres settings and movements from the early republic to the present these essays collectively challenge and complicate many previous claims made about the stability and development of gendered public and private spheres the decline of oratorical culture and the limits of women's oratorical forms such as elocution and parlor rhetorics and women's responses to rhetorical constraints on their public speaking Enriching our understanding of women's oratorical education and practice this cutting edge work makes an important contribution to scholarship in rhetoric and communication

A Companion to Greek Rhetoric Ian Worthington, 2010-01-11 This complete guide to ancient Greek rhetoric is exceptional both in its chronological range and the breadth of topics it covers Traces the rise of rhetoric and its uses from Homer to Byzantium Covers wider ranging topics such as rhetoric's relationship to knowledge ethics religion law and emotion Incorporates new material giving us fresh insights into how the Greeks saw and used rhetoric Discusses the idea of rhetoric and examines the status of rhetoric studies present and future All quotations from ancient sources are translated into English

A Companion to Sport and Spectacle in Greek and Roman Antiquity Paul Christesen, Donald G. Kyle, 2014-01-07 A Companion to Sport and Spectacle in Greek and Roman Antiquity presents a series of essays that apply a socio historical perspective to myriad aspects of ancient sport and spectacle Covers the Bronze Age to the Byzantine Empire Includes contributions from a range of international scholars with various Classical antiquity specialties Goes beyond the usual concentrations on Olympia and Rome to examine sport in cities and territories throughout the Mediterranean basin Features a variety of illustrations maps end of chapter references internal cross referencing and a detailed index to increase accessibility and assist researchers Greek Rhetoric Before Aristotle Richard Leo Enos, 2011-11-29 Recent archaeological discoveries coupled with long lost but now available epigraphical evidence and a more expansive view of literary sources provide new and dramatic evidence of the emergence of rhetoric in ancient Greece Many of these artifacts gathered through onsite fieldwork in Greece are analyzed in this revised and expanded edition of Greek Rhetoric Before Aristotle This new evidence along with recent developments in research methods and analysis reveal clearly that long before Aristotle's Rhetoric long before rhetoric was even stabilized into formal systems of study in Classical Athens nascent pre disciplinary rhetorics were emerging throughout Greece Storytelling and the Future of Organizations David M. Boje, 2011-04-26 Storytelling is part of social action and interaction that actually shapes the future of organizations Organization and management studies have overwhelmingly focused to date on rational narrative structures with beginnings middles and ends where narrative has proved to be a handy concept in qualitative studies Far less attention is given however to the more spontaneous and non staged storytelling that occurs in organizations Storytelling and the Future of Organizations explores the science and practice of antenarrative because that is how the future of organization is shaped Antenarrative is a term invented by David M Boje in 2001 and is defined as a bet on the future as before narrative linearity coherence and stability sets in Antenarrative is all about prospective sensemaking betting on the future before narrative retrospection fossilizes the past Antenarrative storytelling is therefore agential in ways that traditional narratology has yet to come to grips with This handbook contribution is bringing together a decade of scholarship on antenarrative It is the first volume to offer such a varied but systematic examination of non traditional narrative inquiry in the management realm organizing and developing its approach and providing new insights for management students and scholars Theorizing Histories of Rhetoric Michelle Ballif, 2013-02-25 During the decades of the 1980s and 1990s historians of rhetoric composition and communication vociferously theorized historiographical motivations and methodologies for writing histories in their fields After this fertile period of rich contested and impassioned theorization scholars busily undertook the composition of numerous historical works complicating master narratives and recovering silenced voices and rhetorical practices Yet though historians in these fields have gone about the business of writing histories the discussion of theorization has been quiet In this welcome volume fifteen scholars consider once again the theory of historiography asking difficult questions about the purposes and methodologies of writing histories of rhetoric broadly defined and questioning what it means what it should mean what it could mean to write histories of rhetoric composition and communication The topics addressed include the privileging of the literary and the textual over material artifacts as prime sources of evidence in the study of classical rhetoric the use of rhetorical hermeneutics as a methodology for interpreting past practices the investigation of feminist methodologies that do not fit into the dominant modes of feminist historiographical work and the examination of archives with a queer eye to better construct nondiscriminatory narratives Contributors also explore the value of approaching historiography through the lenses of jazz improvisation and complexity theory and the historiographical method of writing the future in ways that refigure our relationships to time and to ourselves Consistently thoughtful and carefully argued these essays successfully revive the discussion of historiography in rhetoric inspiring fresh avenues of exploration in the field
