Banana Wars The Price Of Free Trade A Caribbean Perspective:

Banana Wars Gordon Myers, 2004-08 In the Caribbean Windward Islands one in three jobs and half of export earnings depend on bananas Banana Wars tells how the US government answering the grievances of a single American corporation forced the World Trade Organization to nullify a European Community commitment to protect small Caribbean banana growers

Corporate versus National Interest in US Trade Policy Richard L. Bernal, 2020-10-31 This book provides a history of the WTO US EU banana dispute through the lens of a major actor the US owned multinational firm Chiquita Brands International It documents and explains how Chiquita succeeded in having the Clinton administration pursue a trade policy of forcing the European Union to dismantle its preferential banana import regime for exports from the small English speaking Caribbean ESC countries The export of bananas was critically important to the social stability and economic viability of these countries and that was in the national security interest of the United States The experience indicates that succeeding in this goal was detrimental to U S national security interest in the Caribbean

Economies of Representation, 1790?2000 Leigh Dale, 2017-11-30 Although postcolonialism has emerged as one of the most significant theoretical movements in literary and cultural studies it has paid scant attention to the importance of trade and trade relations to debates about culture Focusing on the past two centuries this volume investigates the links among trade colonialism and forms of representation posing the question What is the historical or modern relationship between economic inequality and imperial patterns of representation and reading Rather than dealing exclusively with a particular industry or type of industry the contributors take up the issue of how various economies have been represented in Aboriginal art in literature by North American Caribbean Portuguese South African First Nations Australian British and Aboriginal authors and in a diverse range of writings that includes travel diaries missionary texts the findings of the Leprosy Investigation Commission early medical accounts and media representations of HIV AIDS Examining trade in commodities as various as illicit drugs liquor bananas tourism adventure fiction and modern Aboriginal art as well as cultural exchanges in politics medicine and literature the essays reflect the widespread origins of the contributors themselves who are based throughout the English speaking world Taken as a whole this book contests the commonplace view promoted by some modern economists that trade in and of itself has a leveling effect equalising cultures places and peoples demonstrating instead the ways in which commerce has created and exacerbated differences in power

Caribbean Bananas Cleary Haines, Mr. Paul Cashin, Mr. Montfort Mlachila, 2010-03-01 This paper examines the macroeconomic effects of the erosion of trade preferences with a focus on the export of Caribbean bananas to Europe Estimates are made of the magnitude of implicit assistance provided over a period of three decades to eastern Caribbean countries through banana trade preferences The value of such assistance rose until the early 1990s and has declined precipitously since then Using vector autoregressive analysis the paper finds that changes in the level of implicit assistance have had a considerable macroeconomic impact especially on Caribbean real GDP growth

Slipping Away

Mark Moberg, 2008 During the 1990s the Eastern Caribbean was caught in a bitter trade dispute between the US and EU over the European banana market When the World Trade Organization rejected preferential access for Caribbean growers in 1998 the effect on the region's rural communities was devastating This volume examines the banana wars from the vantage point of St Lucia's Mabouya Valley whose recent turbulent history reveals the impact of global forces The author investigates how the contemporary structure of the island's banana industry originated in colonial policies to create a politically stable peasantry followed by politicians' efforts to mobilize rural voters These political strategies left farmers dependent on institutional and market protection leaving them vulnerable to any alteration in trade policy This history gave way to a new harsh reality in which neoliberal policies privilege price and quantity over human rights and the environment However against these challenges the author shows how the rural poor have responded in creative ways including new social movements and Fair Trade farming in order to negotiate a stronger position for themselves in a shifting global economy

Is Her Body Robert de la Chevotiere, 2025-10-28 Readers of Black Cake and Family Lore will be captivated by this sweeping multicultural family story of keen observation and the supernatural in which one man's journey to wholeness both emotionally and physically is shaped by the lands of his childhood and those of his ancestors still reeling from the effects of colonialism and immigration Before the oracular gadtzaf came to warn his mother she would die 6 year old Fidel knew only the everyday mystery of the Guadeloupe around him The lush greenery the dusty roads the sugar cane growing and the neighbors arguing the push and pull of love and resentment between people who rely on each other his world is small but full Until a few moments of violence change his life forever Orphaned Fidel returns to his mother's native Dominica and whirls from one relative and reality to another learning pieces of his own story His heritage is one of layered secrets and sharp divisions between the grandmothers who love him and the aunt who wants him dead the Catholic orthodoxy of his school and the Obeah knowledge of his grandfather and the indigenous and the colonial The violence he's witnessed inhabits not only strangers but himself The spirits of the dead visit him with advice threats and explanations And when he sees a path toward happiness in Canada he must reconcile his intense bittersweet love of his home with the possibility of leaving it Walls

That Remain John Rodden, 2016-01-08 The Walls That Remain explores the trauma of German reunification in 1990 as it affected ordinary Eastern and Western Germans Told mainly in their own words this book features the voices of those Germans who have suffered as well as profited from the transformations in German society since the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 and Germany's reunification in October 1990 Environmental Planning in the Caribbean Janet

Momsen, 2016-12-05 Illustrated by case studies from both smaller nations such as Carriacou Barbados and St Lucia and larger countries including Cuba Mexico and Jamaica this volume brings together leading writers on environmental planning in the Caribbean to provide an interdisciplinary contemporary critical overview They argue that context is central to the practice of environmental planning in this region Rather than focusing on a deterministic colonial geography and history the contributors propose that whilst a wide range of foreign planning influences can be felt in different contexts environmental planning emerges in specific settings through the fluid interaction between local and global relations of power A number of chapters explore the effects of external discourses upon the region while others examine discourses on Western style democracy and tourism Other important themes covered include participatory planning urban planning physical development planning pest management sustainable development water pollution conservation and ecotourism At the Margins of the Global Market Phillip A. Hough, 2022-01-27 Contemporary scholars debate the factors driving despotic labour conditions across the world economy Some emphasize the dominance of global market imperatives and others highlight the market's reliance upon extra economic coercion and state violence At the Margins of the Global Market engages in this debate through a comparative and world historical analysis of the labour regimes of three global commodity producing subregions of rural Colombia the coffee region of Viejo Caldas the banana region of Urab and the coca cocaine region of the Caguan By drawing upon insights from labour regimes global commodity chains and world historical sociology this book offers a novel understanding of the broad range of factors local national global and interregional that shape labour conditions on the ground in Colombia In doing so it offers a critical new framework for analysing labour and development dynamics that exist at the margins of the global market
