Rewriting Television Alison Peirse, 2025-01-14 Rewriting Television suggests that it is time for a radical overhaul of television studies. If we don't want to merely recycle the same old methods, approaches and tropes for another twenty years, we need to consider major changes in why and how we do our work. This book offers a new model for doing television or film or media studies that can be taken up around the world. It synthesizes ideas from production studies, screenwriting studies and the idea of writing otherwise to create a new way of studying television. It presents an entirely original approach to working with practitioner interviews that has never been seen before in film, television or media studies. It then offers a series of original reflections on form, story and voice and considers how these reflections could shape future writing in our disciplines. Ultimately, this is a book of ideas. This book asks what if? This book is an opportunity to imagine differently.

Cut to the Chase. Scriptwriting for Beginners, 2023-06-02 So many people watch films and yet so few know how to write a film well. Film writing is a very specific art form. Over the past twenty-something years, Janet van Eeden made every mistake in the book and eventually turned to the experts. Using advice from screenwriting experts such as Robert McKee and Christopher Vogler among many others, Janet van Eeden developed an effective approach to scriptwriting. Cut to the Chase breaks down the essentials of writing for film. Janet van Eeden shares her experience of writing feature films and short films as well as her many years of lecturing in this book. This user-friendly manual unlocks the world of scriptwriting for students. It includes a step-by-step writing programme setting specific tasks after each chapter so that the reader can build up their own film script. The reader is guided towards writing a well-thought-out first draft script written to internationally acceptable standards.
