Baking Cakes In Kigali A Novel:

Baking Cakes in Kigali Gaile Parkin, 2009-08-18 Baking Cakes in Kigali is a tale in fourteen confections and behind each cake lies a story. As baker Angel Tungaraza busies herself with her customers' orders, we learn about their lives: Ken Akimoto with his penchant for partying, her best client and Bosco, his lovesick driver. Dr. Rejoice, without whom she'd never cope with the hot flashes that send her delving into her brassiere for a handkerchief, so often these days. Odile, an AIDS worker whose love life Angel has taken a keen interest in, and not forgetting young Leocadie Modeste and their baby boy, Beckham. Angel works her magic, solving problems for all around her, and in turn they help her lay her own demons to rest. Perhaps she can finally face the truth about the loss of her own son and daughter and achieve a sense of peace. Hauntingly charming, funny, and involving, Baking Cakes in Kigali is a novel about the real meaning of reconciliation about how, in the aftermath of tragedy, life goes on and people still manage to find reasons to celebrate. Baking Cakes in Kigali Gaile

Historical Dictionary of Rwanda Aimable Twagilimana, 2015-11-06. Blessed with natural beauty and rich vegetation, Rwanda is often called the land of a thousand hills, le pays des mille collines, a reference to its many lush and green rolling hills. Moreover, for many Rwandans, at least in the past, Rwanda, in spite of its small size, is vast; in fact, it means the universe. This idyllic view, however, sharply contrasts with the sad history of ethnic strife that unfolded since the 1950s: the 1959 Hutu Revolution followed by years of anti-Tutsi pogroms, undemocratic regimes, the civil war of 1990-1994, and more significantly, the April-July 1994 genocide against the Tutsi and the killing of Hutu who opposed the killings. The 1994 genocide against the Tutsi remains the most defining single event in contemporary Rwanda, and many people in the world today know of this central African nation from the prism of extreme mass violence that sullied the end of the 20th century amid international indifference and has since haunted the world's conscience. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Rwanda contains a chronology, an introduction, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Rwanda.

Rwanda Philip Briggs, 2023-12-06. Now into its eighth edition and written by Philip Briggs, the world's leading author of African guidebooks, Bradt's Rwanda has been the go-to guide for visitors to the Land of a Thousand Hills for more than 20 years. Still the only standalone guide in English to this increasingly popular destination, it remains in a class of its own for in-depth information. With fresh research into developments across the country, Bradt's Rwanda includes expanded coverage of Gishwati-Mukura National Park, which opened to tourism in 2021, and up-to-date details of rapidly modernising Kigali, considered Africa's cleanest city. Rwanda continues to change and develop at an unprecedented pace: no country has a higher proportion of female parliamentarians, and there's hardly a more accessible part of Africa. It's no less intriguing for the convenience, however, and Rwanda's superlative natural attractions constantly improve with growing animal populations, as in Akagera National Park, where Africa's Big Five—rhino, lion, leopard, elephant, and buffalo—can be seen. This new edition also includes extensive maps and natural history information, while details of kayak and canoe excursions on Lake Kivu and the Mukungwa River complement advice about staying on tea plantations at Sorwathe or Gisovu. It contains everything you need to know about tracking mountain gorillas in Volcanoes National Park, workplace of primatologist Dian Fossey, of Gorillas in the Mist fame, and chimpanzees in Nyungwe National Park, East Africa's largest surviving montane forest harbouring numerous endemic birds and primates, and Gishwati-Mukura, which is also the only location for the rare golden monkey outside the Virunga mountains Also covered are Nyanza with its hilltop Rukari King s Palace Museum and the Ethnographic Museum of Rwanda the top cultural site in Butare Huye A chapter on nearby cities and national parks provides key necessary information to take an excursion into neighbouring DRC including how to see lowland gorillas As not only the most in depth guide available in English but also the guide with the longest history in the country itself Bradt s Rwanda is the indispensable companion for visitors including wildlife enthusiasts and Africa aficionados

Postmodern Reading of Contemporary East African Fiction Andrew Nyongesa, 2024-02-29 This book likens writers incessant focus on racism negative ethnicity patriarchy and social stratification in societies to a naive physician who prescribes analgesics to treat symptoms while the underlying cause of the disease seethes in the blood In the same way persons who consistently blame their reckless conduct and shabbiness miss the point if they do not transform the actual cause of the problem the mind While most literary scholars problematise gender disparities racial and political othering oppression environment degradation education matters poor parenting and governance they tend to disregard the root cause modernism This book finds a gap in this grey area to address the authentic cause of the symptoms that most literary writers and scholars treat Pertinent modernist tenets such as bureaucracy the nation state systematisation and rationality and dualism are at the heart of racism corruption and other aforementioned symptoms It is the contention of this study that postmodernism offers a comprehensive understanding of modernism to mitigate its effects on society

Decolonisations of Literature Stefan Helgesson, 2022-04-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book sets out to understand how the meaning of literature was transformed in the Global South in the post 1945 era It looks at institutional contexts in South Africa mainly Johannesburg Brazil S o Paulo Senegal Dakar and Kenya Nairobi and engages with critical writing in English Portuguese and French Critics studied in the book include Antonio Candido Tim Couzens Isabel Hofmeyr Es kia Mphahlele L opold Senghor Taban Lo Liyong and Ngugi wa Thiong o By reading these intellectuals of the Global South as producers of theory and practice in their own right the book attempts to demonstrate the contingency of what is her called the worlding of the concept of literature Decolonisation itself is seen as a contingent non linear process that unfolds in a recursive dialogue with the past In a bid to offer a more grounded approach to world literature a key objective of this study is therefore to investigate the accumulation of temporalities in institutional histories of critical practice To reach this objective it engages the method of conceptual history as developed by Reinhart Koselleck and David Scott demonstrating how the concept of literature is resemanticised in ways that dialectically both challenge and consolidate literature as a concept and practice in post colonised societies
