Balans Van Het Christendom:

Abraham Kuyper's Commentatio (1860): The Young Kuyper about Calvin, a Lasco, and the Church (2 vols.) Jasper Vree, Johan Zwaan, 2019-01-03 In the Commentatio the 22 year old Kuyper not only describes Calvin's and a Lasco's concepts of the Church but also discusses them in the light of the Gospel. The Commentatio marks the beginning of modern a Lasco studies. The work also offers the initial impetus for the idea with which Kuyper would later exert great influence on Dutch nation and society: the Church as a free democratic society of Christians which manifests itself as a living organism in all spheres of life. The text which has never been published before is accompanied by historical and philological introductions, annotations and comprehensive registers and throws surprising new light on the origins of Kuyper's ideas. Moreover, this source edition is important for the study of nineteenth century Reformation research. Kierkegaard Bibliography Peter Šajda, Jon Bartley Stewart, 2016 The long tradition of Kierkegaard studies has made it impossible for individual scholars to have a complete overview of the vast field of Kierkegaard research. The large and ever increasing number of publications on Kierkegaard in the languages of the world can be simply bewildering even for experienced scholars. The present work constitutes a systematic bibliography which aims to help students and researchers navigate the seemingly endless mass of publications. The volume is divided into two large sections. Part I which covers Tomes I-V is dedicated to individual bibliographies organized according to specific language. This includes extensive bibliographies of works on Kierkegaard in some 41 different languages. Part II which covers Tomes VI-VII is dedicated to shorter individual bibliographies organized according to specific figures who are in some way relevant for Kierkegaard. The goal has been to create the most exhaustive bibliography of Kierkegaard literature possible and thus the bibliography is not limited to any specific time period but instead spans the entire history of Kierkegaard studies. Provided by publisher. Pleading for Diversity Linda Stuckrath Gottschalk, 2017-09-11 Coolhaes was a Reformed preacher, a writer of theology, a critic of the churches of his day and an advocate of religious diversity. Coolhaes opposed much of the building up of the organization of the Reformed Church in the Northern Netherlands and Dutch Republic in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries. The struggle between Coolhaes and the Leiden magistrates on one side and the Leiden consistory and fellow preacher Pieter Cornelisz on the other encapsulated the question of authority which was being asked by many. At the same time Coolhaes' theology, especially his Spiritualistic understanding of the sacraments, his Erastianism and his views on free will made him suspicious to his Reformed colleagues. The latter of which leading him later to be labeled the forerunner of Arminius and the Remonstrants. All this eventually led to his defrocking at the synod of Middelburg and soon after to excommunication from the Reformed Church. The question this book answers therefore is: What sort of church would the critic Coolhaes himself have wanted to design for the new Republic? The first part of the book gives a new biographical sketch. Fresh information sources and unexamined works by Coolhaes himself have been uncovered since H. C. Rogge's nineteenth century biography. In the second part the ecclesiology of Coolhaes takes center stage His ideal church would have been characterized by diversity for diversity of religious confessions in the same society would stabilize it and diversity of views even within a confession would not harm it

Dutch Church History Herman J. Selderhuis, 2014-12-10 Herman Selderhuis as editor of this volume has brought together a team of experts resulting in a unique approach since each chapter is co written by a catholic and a protestant author who have all integrated the latest research results Each section begins with a brief historiographical overview The same time ecclesiastical events are always set within a greater framework of political social and cultural developments for which reason each author has taken the liberty to describe its own method The user will find in this book tables diagrams and illustrations Also many source texts are integrated in the narration Theses texts are intended to bring the described events and people closer to the reader and as it were to let them speak the words The name of the book as Handbook of the church history of the Netherlands immediately brings to mind three problematic complexes which are relevant to its user First there is the nature of a handbook that is intended to be a good tool but also has its limitations it stimulates and necessitates the use of further books Second the area The Netherlands is a plurality and that is also noticeable in its church history for each region town and village has its own church history Third the history of the church for sure is the most important aspect but this history can only be understood if it is described in the context of political and social developments

Modern Societies & the Science of Religions Gerard Wiegers, 2018-11-13 This book brings together studies by seventeen specialists in the science of religions in which they relate the changes in their discipline to the changes which have occurred in a select number of modern ising societies worldwide It attempts to study these developments in their relation to and as conditioned and constrained by cultural change changes in educational systems technology population for example migration economic patterns politics and last but not least religious systems The essays focus on resp France Germany the Netherlands Spain the USA Turkey Israel Morocco Saudi Arabia South Africa Indonesia Japan and China Written in honour of Dr Lammert Leertouwer professor of History of Religions and the Comparative Study of Religions at Leiden University from 1979 until his retirement in 1997 the book is particularly important for all those who are interested in the religious social and political contexts of the academic Study of Religions in general and in the various countries dealt with in particular

Christ the Meaning of History Hendrikus Berkhof, 2004-04-02 The core of the Bible Berkhof argues is the belief that the Kingdom of God is coming with power This is the belief that the cross and resurrection are an analogy of the Christ Event which is being realized throughout the world Berkhof addresses non theologians as well as fellow scholars He is sure that the message of the Church is able to liberate and humanize
