Bali Houses New Wave Asian Architecture And Design:

Bali Houses Gianni Francione, 2012-05-15 This Balinese design book containing over 300 beautiful photos and extensive commentary will add a distinctive tropical flair to your interior decorating and architecture The phenomenon loosely termed Bali style has been the subject matter for countless books on art architecture and interior design In this book author and architect Gianni Francione showcases the new generation of Bali style homes interiors and artifacts that utilize what he terms a new internationalism Even though the timeless distinctive Balinese bale open to a panorama of rice fields and the evening breeze is still there it may now be made in marble or stone Similarly present day villas resort bungalows shops restaurants and other buildings are just as likely to use modernist techniques and materials as they are to utilize along along and coconut wood Bali Houses presents this new departure in architecture interior design glassware table settings textiles furniture and furnishings in many never before photographed locations It is a fitting sequel to Bali Modern

Balinese Architecture Julian Davison, 2014-06-04 Balinese style villas and resorts are popping up everywhere from Ibiza to St Barts to Singapore But what is Balinese architecture And why is it so popular today Traditional Balinese houses temples and pavilions are designed to allow man to exist in harmony with the natural forces of the universe reflecting core Balinese beliefs about man's place in relation to the cosmos the gods the ancestors and the world around him Innovative local and Western architects have been designing resorts and villas on Bali for decades drawing their inspiration from these local traditions In this one of a kind book author Julian Davison provides a comprehensive guide to Balinese architectural forms the Balinese belief system the rituals associated with building the materials and construction techniques and the intricate ornamentation used Over 100 watercolor illustrations and photographs provide a clear picture of the island's architecture as well as an eye opening look at a culture and a people that have captivated the world's imagination

Southeast Asia's Modern Architecture Jiat-Hwee Chang, Imran bin Tajudeen, 2019 What is the modern in Southeast Asia's architecture and how do we approach its study critically This pathbreaking multidisciplinary volume is the first critical survey of Southeast Asia's modern architecture It looks at the challenges of studying this complex history through the conceptual frameworks of translation epistemology and power Challenging Eurocentric ideas and architectural nomenclature the authors examine the development of modern architecture in Indonesia Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam with a focus on selective translation and strategic appropriation of imported ideas and practices by local architects and builders The book transforms our understandings of the region's modern architecture by moving beyond a consideration of architecture as an aesthetic artifact and instead examining its entanglement with different dynamics of power
