Balkan Story Balkan Story Part One:

Balkan Life Courses. Part 1 Klaus Roth, Milena Benovska, 2018 The historical upheavals in Southeast Europe since the early 20th century brought about deep transformations of people's everyday lives and their life courses The concept of life course enables the understanding of human lives within their socio cultural and political contexts stressing agency and people's everyday experience Balkan contexts invite for analyses that bridge political and social changes and their influence on individual life courses The papers discuss problems such as family life and parenthood ages and ageing life cycle rituals and the artistic expressions devoted to them The authors present manifestations of the social differentiation and cultural multiplicity under post socialist or post colonial conditions from developing contemporary global life styles among the emerging urban middle class to the ghettoization of some social or age groups This volume focusses on developing family cultures on experiencing socialization and age on old and new life cycle rituals and their artistic representations in contemporary Southeast Europe Untold Stories of the Spanish Civil War Raanan Rein, Susanne Zepp-Zwirner, 2023-11-23 This is the first scholarly volume to offer an insight into the less known stories of women children and international volunteers in the Spanish Civil War Special attention is given to volunteers of different historical experiences especially Jews and voices from less researched countries in the context of the Spanish war such as Palestine and Turkey Of an interdisciplinary nature this volume brings together historians and literary scholars from different countries Their research is based on newly found primary sources in both national and private archives as well as on post essentialist methodological insights for women's history Jewish history and studies on belonging By bringing together a group of emerging and senior scholars from different countries we highlight the polyphony of voices of diverse individuals drawn into the Spanish Civil War Contributors to this volume have explored new or little researched primary sources found in archives and documentary centers including papers held by relatives of the people we study The volume is aimed at both scholarly and non scholarly public including any readers interested in the Spanish Civil War twentieth century European history Jewish studies women's history or anti fascism This volume can be used both in undergraduate college courses and in postgraduate university seminars Balkan Fascination Mirjana Laušević, 2015-10 In Balkan Fascination ethnomusicologist Mirjana Laušević a native of the Balkans investigates this remarkable phenomenon to explore why so many Americans actively participate in specific Balkan cultural practices to which they have no familial or ethnic connection The Cambridge Modern History, 1910 'Balkanization' and the Euro-Atlantic Processes of the (Western) Balkans Liridona Veliu Ashiku, 2024-08-30 This book explores how balkanization as a discourse underpins the policies of the European Union EU and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO toward the Western Balkans It shows how EU and NATO policies have emerged from and led to the constant reinvention of the unity of the West through balkanizing the region and illustrates how this dynamic is maintained by and instrumentalized for the political elites Through a genealogical analysis that stretches from the Balkans

Wars to more recent events such as North Macedonia's change of name in 2018 the author shows how Western policies have aimed at recreating the united West on the back of the broken Balkans The book will appeal to scholars and students of Southeast Europe International Relations Political Science Peace and Conflict Studies and History Violence in the Balkans Anna-Maria Getoš Kalac, 2021-09-09 This is the first volume to offer an in depth look at lethal violence in the Balkans The Balkans Homicide Study analyses 3 000 attempted homicide cases from Croatia Hungary Kosovo Macedonia Romania and Slovenia Shedding light on a region long neglected in terms of empirical violence research the study at hand asks What types of homicides occur in the Balkans Who are the perpetrators and what motivates them Who are the victims and what potential protective factors are on their side Why do prosecutors dismiss homicide investigations Amongst other questions and considerations this brief discusses regional commonalities throughout the Balkans in view of their cultural historical and normative context Dismantling negative stereotypes of a growing and thriving Balkan society this volume will be of interest to researchers in the Balkans researchers of post conflict regions and those interested in the nature of homicide and its motivation prevention and various criminal justice approaches Music in the Balkans Jim Samson, 2013-06-15 This book asks how a study of many different musics in South East Europe can help us understand the construction of cultural traditions East and West It crosses boundaries of many kinds political cultural repertorial and disciplinary Above all it seeks to elucidate the relationship between politics and musical practice in a region whose art music has been all but written out of the European story and whose traditional music has been subject to appropriation by one ideology after another South East Europe with its mix of ethnicities and religions presents an exceptionally rich field of study in this respect The book will be of value to anyone interested in intersections between pre modern and modern cultures between empires and nations and between culture and politics Imagining the Balkans Maria Todorova, 2009-04-15 Imagining the Balkans examines how an innocent geographic appellation was transformed into a powerful and widespread pejorative designation In a new afterword Maria Todorova discusses the reaction to her dubbing of the term Balkanism and recent events in the Balkans

Documents on the Balkans - History, Memory, Identity Margit Rohringer, 2020-06-01 This book explores historical discourses on the various forms of identity production in film that are based on memory and shows how these narratives get mediated by documentary film Most films about the Balkans produced in the last two decades were in fact made in response to immediate concerns about the economic crises and political conflicts that struck the region during the 1990s These new forms of communication about history mostly show a rather self critical approach The book's case studies give the reader a clear idea of how processes informing identity formations are directly launched and later on maintained in peoples real and everyday lives Thus the case studies principal objective is to integrate the study of private space with existing macro debates in politics as well as with dominant discourses within the academic community The included case studies focus on several topics i e migration the reproduction and protection of personal as well as collective identities in post socialist societies revolutionary processes towards the official end of the Cold War the re creation of politically constructed narratives generational conflicts in the post socialist period and the fate of women during the war The multifaceted view of the region under focus in this study shows that common grounds and differences co exist in the Balkan space be it on a cultural economic social or geo political level Apart from the field of film studies this work is a powerful contribution to cultural history as well as to the growing field of visual history

The Balkan Wars Andre Gerolymatos, 2008-08-05 When it comes to the Balkans most people quickly become lost in the quagmire of struggle and intractable hatred that consumes that ancient land today Many assume that the genesis of the past ten years of atrocity in the region might have had something to do with Tito and his repressive Yugoslav regime or perhaps with the assassination of Franz Ferdinand in 1914 The seeds were really planted much much earlier on a desolate plain in Kosovo in 1389 when the Serbian Prince Lazar and his army clashed with and were defeated by the Ottoman forces of Sultan Murad I In this riveting new history of the Balkan peoples Andr erolymatos explores how ancient events engendered cultural myths that evolved over time gaining psychic strength in the collective consciousnesses of Orthodox Christians and Muslims alike In colorful detail we meet the key figures that instigated and perpetuated these myths including the assassin heroes Milos Obolic and Gavrilo Princip and the warlord Ali Pasha This lively survey of centuries of strife finally puts the modern conflicts in Bosnia and Kosovo into historical context and provides a long overdue account of the origins of ethnic hatred and warmongering in this turbulent land
